RETURNS FROM THE SEVERAL POLICE DISTRICTS.

TABLE XXIX.—Habitual Criminals at Large and Houses of Bad Character in each District.

The enumeration for the purposes of these Tables was made on the first Tuesday in April, 1911.

Columns 2 to 5, "Number of Habitual Criminals at Large," include persons who are known to engage habitually in crime as their means, or part of their means, of livelihood. Persons previously convicted, but not habitual criminals, are not included. Crime is understood in the sense given to it by the definition in Section 20 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871, viz., any felony and the following misdemeanours:—uttering or possessing counterfeit coin, false pretences, conspiracy to defraud, and possession of house-breaking implements, or any offence under Section 58 of the Larceny Act, 1861.

Column 7, "Houses of Receivers of Stolen Goods," includes houses reasonably suspected of being used for the receipt of stolen goods, whether there is an actual conviction against the occupier or not.

Columns 8, 9, and 10 include all houses where thieves and other habitual criminals regularly resort and meet, whether or not the occupiers of the houses are suspected of wilfully harbouring them, or of complicity in their crimes.

NOTES TO CORONERS' TABLES.

Table XXX.

(a.) Inquests held on several bodies simultaneously (e.g., where several persons have been killed at the same time by a railway accident or a colliery explosion) are in this Table and Table XXXI reckoned, not as one inquest, but as separate inquests on each person.

(b.) Columns 3 and 5 include the inquests on the bodies of children who at the time of death had not completed one year; columns 4 and 6 the inquests on those who had completed one year, but not completed seven years, and similarly in the other columns. Where the actual age is not known, the age is estimated as nearly as possible.

Table XXXI.

(c.) Column 8 ("Disease Aggravated by Neglect by Others") and column 11 ("Want of Attention at Birth") include those cases of neglect which fall short of manslaughter.

(d.) Column 9 ("Want, Exposure, &c.") includes verdicts of death by disease aggravated by want, exposure, or by self-neglect, and column 10 ("Excessive Drinking") includes verdicts of death by disease aggravated by excessive drinking.

(e.) Column 13 ("Death from Natural Causes") includes verdicts of death by disease or death from old age.

(f.) Columns 19 and 20 include inquests on the bodies of children who have died shortly after birth, or who, so far as is known or can be judged, have not lived longer than 24 hours. The cases shown in columns 19 and 20 are also entered according to the cause of death in columns 2 to 18.

TABLE XXXII.—PRISONERS.—Receptions of Prisoners in each Prison.

(a). CRIMINAL PRISONERS.

Note.—This table gives the numbers of each class of criminal prisoners received in each prison during the year. In the case of prisoners committed for trial it is necessary to distinguish those who were and those who were not previously in prison on remand; otherwise in making up the total the same person would, in many cases, count twice—as a remand prisoner and as a prisoner committed for trial. Similarly convicted prisoners have to be divided into those who were and those who were not in detention before trial. The figures of the cases which thus appear a second or a third time are printed in italics, columns 3, 5 and 7. The total of criminal prisoners, column 10, is obtained by adding the figures in the other columns 2, 4, 6, 8 and 9.

The table gives only the first receptions of prisoners on remand, committal for trial, &c. When prisoners are transferred from one prison to another they appear only in the return from the prison in which they are first received, not in that from the prison to which they are removed. Hence no receptions into convict prisons are shown, as all convicts undergo some detention in local prisons before transfer to convict prisons.

TABLE XXXIII.—CONVICTED PRISONERS.—Nature of Sentences of Prisoners received in each Prison.

Notes.—(a) This table includes all persons received under sentence during the year from 1st January to 31st December, whether they were in prison before conviction or not.
(b) All prisoners appear in the return from the prison in which they are first received after sentence, and not in the return for any prison to which they may be subsequently removed.
(c) Column 6 includes cases where a licence is forfeited on conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for an offence under Section 5 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871. Other cases of forfeiture and all cases of revocation of licence are included in column 12.

TABLE XXXIX.—UNCONVICTED PRISONERS.—Terms of Detention, before Trial, of Persons tried in each Court.

The term of detention is reckoned from the date on which the prisoner was committed for trial to the date on which his trial commenced, both these days being included. Where a prisoner after committal to prison was released on bail, the detention is reckoned to the date of release on bail. The number acquitted includes cases in which the Grand Jury returned no bill; in these cases the detention is reckoned to the date of the decision of the Grand Jury.

PLACES OF DETENTION.

XLV.—PLACES OF DETENTION.—Receptions of Children and Young Persons.

BORSTAL INSTITUTIONS.

Borstal Institutions are places in which young offenders, aged upon conviction not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-one years, may be given such industrial training and other instruction, and be subjected to such disciplinary and moral influences as will conduce to their reformation and the prevention of crime.

Courts of Assize and Quarter Sessions may sentence persons within the limits of age, who are convicted of offences punishable with penal servitude or imprisonment, to Borstal Detention for not less than one year nor more than three years.

Borstal Institutions have been established at Borstal, Canterbury, and Feltham for males, and at Aylesbury for females.

Table XLII supplements the information given in Tables I, III, and V with regard to persons sentenced to Borstal Detention, and shows also in what manner the persons who left the Institutions during the year were disposed of. Other information concerning the inmates and management of Borstal Institutions is given in the Annual Report of the Commissioners of Prisons [Cd. 6406].

REFORMATORY AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

Reformatory Schools are institutions to which youthful offenders between the ages of twelve and sixteen years are committed for industrial training. Industrial Schools receive for the same purpose children under the age of fourteen years who are charged with offences, or whose circumstances and surroundings are such as to make it probable that they will fall into criminal habits or modes of life or become the victims of criminal or immoral influences.

On the 31st December, 1911, there were in existence 36 reformatory schools (27 for male offenders and 9 for females), 119 residential industrial schools (77 for boys and 42 for girls), and 12 day industrial schools in which children of both sexes are received. The boys' residential industrial schools include 8 "short-term" schools, mainly devoted to offenders against the Education Acts, whom it is the practice to release on licence after a comparatively brief period of detention.

Tables XLIII and XLIV supply information additional to the particulars given in Tables I, III, V, XI, XIV, and XVI, concerning the children and young persons committed by the courts to reformatory and industrial schools during the year, and also show in what manner those who left the institutions in the same period were disposed of. Particulars concerning the inmates and management of the institutions are given in the annual report of the Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools [Cd. 6502].

PLACES OF DETENTION.

Places of detention are provided by police authorities for the temporary detention of children and young persons under sixteen years of age charged with offences, when the circumstances do not admit of release upon recognizances and it would otherwise be necessary to confine the child or young person in a police station or prison.

Children or young persons convicted of offences punishable in the case of adults by penal servitude or imprisonment, may be committed to places of detention for terms not exceeding one month.

Places of detention consist of—

(1) Institutions used for the purpose by arrangement, and

(2) (in a few large cities), premises specially established for the purpose.

The former classes of premises include reformatory schools (for convicted cases only), industrial schools, boys' and girls' refuges and homes, workhouses, and similar institutions.

Note to Section (a).

This table comprises all admissions into Industrial Schools during the year. In Day Industrial Schools children attending under Attendance Orders, voluntary cases, and cases received on licence from Industrial Schools are included. Re-admissions on revocation of licence or on re-capture after escape are not included, nor are admissions on transfer from another school.

The following are the different classes of committals distinguished in columns 4 to 18 :—

Column 4.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found begging or receiving alms (whether or not there is any pretext of singing, playing, or performing, or of offering anything for sale), or being in any street premises or place for the purpose of so begging or receiving alms (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 5.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found wandering, and not having any home or settled place of abode, or visible means of subsistence, or proper guardianship (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 6.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found destitute, not being orphans, and having both parents or the surviving parent undergoing penal servitude or imprisonment (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 7.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, under the care of a parent or guardian unfit by reason of criminal or drunken habits (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 8.—Girls, apparently under the age of 14 years, whose father has been convicted of an offence under section 4 or 5 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1885, against a daughter (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 9.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, that frequent the company of reputed thieves (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 10.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, lodging, or residing in a house used by any prostitute for the purpose of prostitution, or who have been living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage, or favour the seduction or prostitution of the child (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 11.—Children, apparently under the age of 12 years, who are charged with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 12.—Children, apparently aged above 12 years and under the age of 14 years, who are charged with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 13.—Children whose parents or guardians prove to a Petty Sessional Court that they are unable to control the child, and that they desire that the child be sent to an industrial school (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 14.—Children, inmates of a workhouse or pauper school, in respect of whom the guardians or school managers satisfy a Petty Sessional Court that they are refractory, or that they are the children of parents, either of whom has been convicted of an offence punishable with penal servitude or imprisonment, and that it is desirable that the child should be sent to an industrial school (Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 15.—Children sent to an industrial school for non-compliance with an attendance order, made on the ground that his parent habitually, and without reasonable excuse, neglected to provide efficient elementary education for him (Elementary Education Act, 1876, sec. 12, and Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 16.—Children committed to an industrial school for non-compliance with an attendance order, made on the ground that the child was found habitually wandering, or not under proper control, or in the company of rogues, vagabonds, disorderly persons, or reputed criminals (Elementary Education Act, 1876, sec. 12, and Children Act, 1908, sec. 58).

Column 17.—Children ordered to be sent to a Day Industrial School who are guilty of a serious and wilful breach of the rules of the school, or who wilfully neglect to attend thereat (Order in Council, 2nd April, 1909, Arts. VIII. and IX.).

Column 18.—Children sent to industrial schools for contravention of byelaws for the regulation of street trading made under the Employment of Children Act, 1903, or under local Acts.

In Day Industrial Schools there are also the following classes :—

Column 19.—Children received into Day Industrial Schools under Attendance Orders (Children Act, 1908, sec. 79).

Column 20.—Children received into Day Industrial Schools without order of Court (Children Act, 1908, sec. 79).

Column 21.—Children attending Day Industrial Schools in pursuance of licences from the Managers of Industrial Schools (Children Act, 1908, secs. 67 and 77).

NOTES TO TABLE L.

(a.)—The classification of the grounds on which pardons, &c., are granted requires some further explanation:—

Column 3, "On grounds affecting the original conviction," includes pardons or remissions of sentence granted on account of fresh evidence establishing the prisoner's innocence, or showing reasonable doubt as to guilt, or altering the view taken as to the legal character of the offence.

Column 5, "On medical grounds," includes persons discharged solely on medical grounds, e.g., persons whose lives were endangered by imprisonment, and women near their confinement, who, if longer detained, would not have been fit for discharge at the expiration of their sentence. Where the medical condition of the persons formed only a part of the grounds for the exercise of the prerogative, the cases are tabulated under other heads.

Column 7, "In simple mitigation of Sentence," in distinction from column 3, comprises all cases where the mitigation granted does not imply any alteration of the view taken by the Court as to the prisoner's guilt or as to the legal character of his offence, but where weight is given with or without a recommendation from the judge or magistrate, to such extenuating circumstances as youth, provocation, mental disturbance, &c.; also cases where remission is granted for reasons not cognizable to the Court, as where a short remission enables a prisoner to avail himself of some special opportunity of making a new start in life.

Column 8, "Other cases."—Two of the persons in this column were soldiers convicted of comparatively slight offences who were released in order that they might be sent on foreign service, nine were alien prisoners ordered to be deported, who were released a few days before the expiration of their sentence to facilitate arrangements for deportation, and one was an alien prisoner who became insane and was discharged to enable him to be sent to his native country.

(b.)—"Remanet."—When a convict is released on licence he is liable, if again convicted, to undergo a term of penal servitude equal to the portion of his original sentence unexpired at the time of his release. This is known as a "remanet."

Percentage to Proceedings begun ...	—	—	—	—	31·23	31·64	31·44	—

In 1911 there was a considerable reduction in the total proceedings begun in all courts (1,421,691 against 1,475,422) due mainly to the decline in County Court plaints, &c. (1,313,145 against 1,363,747). In Appellate Courts there was a slight increase (1,562 against 1,482) ; and increases are to be noted in 1911 in proceedings begun in the King's Bench Division, Divorce, Admiralty, Lunacy, and Lancaster and Durham Chancery Courts. There was a decrease in the total proceedings as compared with the population ; 3,959 per 100,000 in 1911 as against 4,122 in 1910 and 4,271 in 1909.

There was also a decrease in 1911 in actions, &c. heard and determined (447,047 against 466,894), both absolutely and relatively to population.

Dealing with facts likely to affect the volume of litigation, or to be subject to the same influences, it may be stated that the year showed a decline in crime generally, i.e., persons tried for indictable offences (172 per 100,000 of population as against 185 in 1910), and a smaller proportion of persons in receipt of poor relief (on 1st July 21·0 per 1,000 against 24·6 per 1,000). On the other hand, there was, especially towards the end of 1911, a large number of strikes and labour disputes. No fewer than 903 disputes of an aggregate duration of 10,319,591 working days

* Including proceedings in Bankruptcy and Companies Winding up.
† The figures for Lancaster Chancery Court may include proceedings in Companies Winding up in the Durham Chancery Court.
‡ Including appellate proceedings in the Court of Arches and in the Chancery Court of the Province of York.

began in 1911, involving directly and indirectly 961,980 workpeople, as compared with 531 disputes in 1910 of an aggregate duration of 9,894,831 working days and involving 515,165 workpeople. The corresponding figures for the year 1909 being 436, 2,773,986 and 300,819 respectively.

It was stated in the Introduction to the Civil Judicial Statistics for 1910 that "population would seem to be increasing faster than litigation," and this statement is borne out by the figures for 1911. There has been, moreover, a fairly continuous decline in litigation since 1903–5.

I give the figures for the last ten years.

If the total proceedings in the High Court are taken separately, and exclusive of Bankruptcy and Companies Winding up Proceedings, we find the following results.

Year.	High Court Proceedings Begun (excluding Bankruptcy and Companies Winding up).
	Number.	Proportion per 100,000 of population.
1911	71,608	198

1903	81,085	244
1902	79,518	241
Annual Average, 1902–06	79,721·4	237

This shows a distinct decline in High Court business. The decline now extends to the County Courts, the figures for 1911 being the lowest since 1902. The quinquennial increase in 1907–11 over 1902–6 was only ·94 per cent. as against 14·14 per cent. in 1902–6 over the previous period of five years.

Fees.—There having been no important change in Court Fees in recent years, the yield from them is probably a fair criterion of general business. I give the figures for ten years :—

Annual Average, 1902–06	2,261	2,127	377,225	550,430	28,099	960,143

In all fees there was, it would appear, an increase in the average in 1907–11 by £969,072 against £960,143 in 1902–06; but the figures for 1911, when compared with those for the previous year and 1908 and 1909, show a distinct decrease.

The increase in the quinquennial average is attributable to the County Courts, although in these Courts there has been since 1909 a decline in fees.

Number of Judges.—The entire number of proceedings begun and heard in the Superior Courts (Court of Appeal, King's Bench Division, Chancery Division, Probate Admiralty and Divorce Division) were 74,825 and 5,565. These were heard and determined by a staff of 32 Judges (exclusive of the Lord Chancellor) that is to say, one Judge to 1,130,120 persons. The corresponding figures for Ireland appear to be one for 313,996, and for Scotland one for 366,111, or nearly four times as many as in England and Wales.

There has been much dispute in German legal literature as to the exact equivalent of an English Judge in the German Judicature system. If the Oberlandesgerichte may be assumed to be equivalent to the English Supreme Court, in Germany (1911) there appear to be one Supreme Court Judge to 79,566 inhabitants. If the Oberlandesgerichte and Landgerichte are equivalents, the figures would be one to 15,797.

As regards France if the Cours d'Appel may be taken as the equivalent of the English Supreme Court the proportion appears to be one Judge to 82,321 inhabitants. If the Tribunaux Civils de Première Instance are included the figures would appear to be one Judge to 14,222 inhabitants.

Taking by way of comparison judicature systems akin to the English system, it may be remarked that in Australia (1911) there were 32 Judges of the Supreme Courts, or 1 Judge to 139,219 persons, and in New Zealand, 1 Judge to 168,078 persons.

I add a statement as to the strength and cost of the English Supreme Court.

It thus appears that the proportion of Judges of the Supreme Court to the population has remained substantially the same. Excluding 1902 and 1903 in which the Imperial expenditure was abnormal, the expenditure of the Supreme Court has slightly risen.

Table LIX gives particulars as to the receipts and expenditure of the Court of Appeal, Court of Criminal Appeal and High Court. They show a net charge of £216,745. But it will be observed that the expenditure includes expenses attributable to criminal matters and the new heading of expenditure—Court of Criminal Appeal. The figures have remained fairly stationary, but there was a slight increase in 1910 and 1911 due to the expenses of the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.—In the Judicial Committee the number of Appeals entered was 128 against 142 in 1910. It will be noticed that there were nearly twice as many Indian as Colonial appeals (77 against 47). About one-half (22) of the latter were from Canada. It may be of interest to note that in the early part of the last century the majority of appeals came from the West Indian Colonies, particularly Jamaica. In 1814–1826 no fewer than 100 appeals came from that Island, in 1827–1832, 31. In the last 10 years the number of appeals from Jamaica was only five.

[a] For the purposes of this calculation (necessarily imperfect), the total of the Imperial expenditure for the United Kingdom is divided in the same proportions as the portion of the total expenditure which is devoted to English, Scottish, and Irish services respectively. (See Revenue and Expenditure (England, Scotland, and Ireland). Parly. Papers, H.C. (190) 1912.)

It will be observed that the annual average of Indian and other Asiatic Appeals has risen from 51·4 in 1902–6 to 63·6 in 1907–11.

House of Lords.—In the House of Lords the number of petitions presented was 90 (about the same number as in 1910). No fewer than 23 were from the Court of Sessions. One feature of the business of the House of Lords (or Committee for Privileges) was the large number of peerage claims. This statement shows the number of claims before the Committee for Privileges for the last ten years :—

Court of Appeal.—There was an increase in the number of appeals to the Court of Appeal (862 against 814) the increase being both in appeals from final judgments and interlocutory orders. Of the final appeals set down no fewer than about one-fourth (164 out of 619) were from County Courts, being appeals under the Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1897, 1900 and 1906.

It may be of interest to note that from the passing of the 1897 Act down to the end of 1911 no fewer than 1,394 appeals from the decisions under these Acts of the County Court Judges have been entered in the Court of Appeal. Probably no other statute has in a like period been the source or occasion of so much litigation. The following statement gives the proportion which such appeals bear to the total set down. It will be seen that the 1906 Act, which came into operation in the middle of 1907, and which extended the provisions of the 1897 Act to practically all industries, has resulted in a marked increase in the number of appeals.

[a] Number of Judges, 6.

The above statement shows an almost continuous decrease. A reference to comparative Table A shows that the quinquennial decrease in proceedings begun for some years has on the whole been continuous and has become more marked ; 1887–91, −1·29 ; 1892–96, −1·56 ; 1897–01, −1·54 ; 1902–06, −7·03 ; 1907–11, −10·61.

The chief decline was in actions tried ; the average for 1907–11 showing a decline of more than 20 per cent. as compared with the average of 1902–6.

In 1911 there was again a decline in the causes or matters begun, the proceedings begun (5766 against 6006) being the smallest yet recorded. There was also a decline in orders made at Chambers (12,476 against 12,686), in actions heard and determined (434 against 449), in the number of taxations (3711 against 3784) in the amount of costs brought in (£774,254 against £826,502), in fees received (£40,875 against £42,847) ; in other words, a decline under all the above heads.

The following statement of the amount of fees earned in each of the last ten years is another indication of the decline of business in this Division.

With reference to the number of appearances entered of this Division (See Table IX) it may be observed that they bear no necessary relation to the number of actions begun. As is pointed out by the Chief Clerk of the Writ, Appearance, and Judgment Department:—

"An action in the Chancery Division endures and is active in many cases for a great number of years, e.g. where the trusts of a Will or Settlement, or Estate are being administered under the control of the Court, when children born are added as defendants or plaintiffs as soon as they are baptised, or named : or persons having a possible interest are ordered to be served, often years after the action has commenced, when it may turn out that some other branches of a family have some contingent or prospective interest in the Trust or Estate being administered. All such persons are directed to be served with the proceedings and have to enter appearances if they wish to be represented.

"We may have any number of appearances from 10 to 50 or more in one Chancery action several years after the action is commenced.

"In King's Bench actions on the other hand you will see that in 1911 there were in round numbers 11,000 actions in which judgment in default of appearance was entered. That means that no appearance was entered in those actions. In addition to this, a considerable proportion of King's Bench actions begin and end with the issue of the writ—probably from 15,000 to 20,000 in a year. These are mere debt actions in which the defendant pays the debt and costs directly he is served with the writ.

"This would leave about 7,000 actions in which appearance was entered.

"There were 23,000 appearances entered, most of which (these being King's Bench actions, and not Chancery), were probably entered in the 7,000 actions of 1911, but there are no means of knowing how many of these were entered in actions commenced in 1910 or how the rest are to be distributed among the remaining actions of 1911 : some actions would have one appearance only in each, some three or five or ten, or more in each.

King's Bench Division.—The following statements indicate in the main the course of business for the ten years from 1902 to 1911 :—

Here, too, there was a decline under all the above headings. On the other hand, the business of the Divisional Courts has within the same period somewhat increased, as appears from the next statement. Neither statement includes any part of the business of the Court of Criminal Appeal or of the Railway Commission, nor do the figures include motions, etc. in Revenue Cases. In the work of the Railway Commission one Judge sat for 48 days in England. The figure for 1912 was much larger.

There was in 1911 a slight decrease in writs and other originating proceedings (61,822 against 61,899).

* From 1902-06 there were 15 Judges attached to this Division. In October, 1907, an additional Judge was appointed, and in October, 1910, two more were appointed, making the total strength of the Division 18 Judges.

† Motions, special cases, &c. in Crown and Revenue proceedings are not included.

Judges' summonses also declined somewhat from 1,538 to 1,478. The total fees fell to £128,909 from £131,671. On the other hand, Masters' summonses increased slightly from 27,695 to 27,883. Summary judgments also have increased (5,796 against 5,628).

Of the total amount for which judgments for plaintiff were entered (£5,150,267), £1,979,593, were under order XIV, £218,988 after trial with jury and £279,111 after trial without a jury. Less than one-tenth of the amount recovered was after trial.

Out of 25,786 judgments for money claims only 7,702 or about 30 per cent. were over £100. This class of judgment has been distinguished separately in the judicial statistics only since 1909 and therefore it cannot be said with any degree of certainty that the number tends to increase. It may, however, be pointed out that in the Central Office the number of judgments above £100 were 5,934 in 1911 as compared with 5,663 in the previous year.‡

In London and Middlesex actions 52·7 per cent. of the verdicts were for amounts over £100 and on Circuit the proportion of similar verdicts was 41·2 per cent.

The total number of actions entered for trial during the year 1911 in London and Middlesex and on Circuit was practically the same as in 1910 (3,078 against 3,071). The number of defended actions was slightly more than in the year before (1,976 against 1,943).

More than once it has been noted that about one-tenth of the actions entered in London and Middlesex and on Circuit are for damages for Libel or Slander. In 1911 the proportion was about one-eighth (386 out of 3,078).

There is no sign of a decline in the proportion of actions tried by a jury. The number of actions in London and Middlesex tried by a jury was 758, without a jury, 629 ; i.e., 54·7 per cent. were tried with a jury. The corresponding percentages were for 1896–1900, 42·9 ; for 1901–5, 48·6 ; and for 1906–10, 50·1. On circuit the number of actions tried by a jury was 476, without a jury, 205 ; or, in other words, 69·9 per cent. of the total actions tried came before a jury. The corresponding percentages for 1896–1900 were 63·4 ; for 1901–5, 70·4 ; and for 1906–10, 71·5.

The number of actions tried by special juries in London and Middlesex was 346 ; by common juries, 412 ; i.e., 45·6 per cent. of the jury actions were tried by special juries. The corresponding percentages for 1896–1900 were 50·1; for 1901–5, 48·0; and for 1906–10, 48·8. On circuit 243 actions came before a special jury and 233 actions before a common jury, giving a percentage of 51·1 actions tried before a special jury. The corresponding figures for 1896–1900 were 43·9 per cent., and for 1901–5 and 1906–10, 48·0 per cent.

In the Probate Court the cases tried by juries were 40 and without juries 34, i.e., the percentage with a jury was 54·1. The corresponding figures were 1896–1900, 33·3 ; in 1901–5, 41·3 ; and in 1906–10, 40·0. The cases tried by special juries were 26, or 65·0 per cent. ; the corresponding figures being for 1896–1900, 50·0 per cent., 1901–5, 52·5 per cent. and 1906–10, 59·6 per cent.

In the Divorce Court the cases tried by a jury were only 66, or 8·7 per cent. of the total cases disposed of, the corresponding figures being, 1896–1900, 13·6 per cent.; 1901–5, 13·3 per cent.; and 1906–10, 10·4 per cent.

In the County Courts the percentage of actions tried with a jury was only 2·21. In 1896–1900 it was 2·39 in 1901–5 it was 2·20, and in 1906–10 2·13 per cent. It is in keeping with the above figures that the number of jurors summoned is increasing. The increase is particularly perceptible at the High Court the figures for which were 14,878 as against 10,892 in 1901 and 12,338 in 1902.

A statement has been prepared as to the King's Bench Division showing the cases set down at the beginning of each sitting during the last ten years.

The longest list of cases at the beginning of Sittings was in Michaelmas, 1910. The decline in the number of cases from 1910 to 1911 will be noted.

I append a statement as to the business, civil and criminal, on circuit. In the former there was a distinct decline to be observed in the annual average for 1907–11 as compared with the average for 1902–06, while in the latter there was an increase in the figures for the same period.

In 1911 there was a slight increase of the civil business on Circuit, the total number of causes entered being 891 as against 822; the total disposed of in Court 681 as against 646, and the amount recovered £105,944 as against £104,819.

The following is a list of the Circuit towns at which not more than 5 actions were entered during 1911. The figures in brackets show the number of prisoners for trial at each town.

(2) One recent feature of the business of the King's Bench is the increase in the number of examinations of debtors, which has risen to 720. They are, it is believed, generally useless for purposes of securing information as to the debtors' means. Very rarely does the judgment creditor elicit at the examination facts which enable him to realise the fruits of his judgment.

Examinations of Judgment Debtors and other Examinations ordered to be taken by the Masters.

(3) There was a considerable increase in the business of the King's Remembrancer's Department. The number of writs was the largest recorded. The subpœnas ad respondendum, the ordinary originating process used by the Crown for the recovery of duties or debts under Statutes relating to customs, excise, stamps, taxes, &c., were 2,064 as against 1,256 in the previous year, that is, an increase of 64 per cent. Recent legislation has imposed upon this department much additional work. In 1911, 86 petitions of appeal under Section 44 (2) of the Finance (1909–10) Act, 1910, in respect of the valuation of licensed premises for excise duty, were filed and set down for hearing.

*In addition to the above sittings the Judges sat in London to deal with Chancery causes and matters proceeding in Liverpool District Registries on 18 days in 1908, 1909, and 1910, and on 17 days in 1911.

Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division (Divorce).—There was a decided increase in the number of petitions for divorce (859 against 755). During the last 10 years such petitions have increased somewhat faster than population as is shown in diagram 2. There was also an increase in the petitions for judicial separation (81 against 58). As usual the number of divorce petitions presented by husbands (466) exceeded those by wives (393). But this excess tends to decrease; a fact which also appears by the diagram. The decrees made absolute in petitions for divorce were 562 (against 579). The total number of decrees was at the rate of 3·91 per 1,000 marriages.

Of 1,073 marriages as to which there were petitions for dissolutions, judicial separation, nullity, or restitution, the average duration was 11·5 years. In 353, or 33 per cent., the duration was 5 to 10, and in 418, or 39 per cent. 10 to 20 years.

In the case of 859 petitions for divorce, no fewer than 312, or 36 per cent., were marriages without children.

The number of separation orders granted by Magistrates, as appears from Table LXXXIV (b) was 5,170 as against 4,819 in 1910. There was a great variety in the geographical distribution of such orders. Speaking generally, there were few in agricultural counties; e.g., in Dorset, with a population of 223,266 there were only 11 orders granted; in Wilts, with a population of 286,822 only 9; and in Hereford only 1 order in a total population of 114,269. The County with the largest number of orders is Lancashire, with 1,287 to a population of 4,767,832. But Nottinghamshire has the largest number in proportion to the population, having 183 orders to 604,098 inhabitants.

County Courts.—In the County Courts there was a slight decrease in the number of plaints (1,276,510 against 1,330,315); of these only 493 were for sums over £100. The proportion of such plaints has not, of late years, increased; the percentages of such for the last five years being ·06 in 1907, ·05 in 1908, and ·04 in each of the years 1909–1911.

Plaints reached their maximum in 1904, which was a year of bad trade as well as a year of an exceptionally large number of bankruptcies. Of late the plaints entered have been on the whole stationary, with a slight tendency to decline.

An examination of the decrease in the number of County Court Plaints shows that there were decreases in 44 Circuits and increases in only 10.

The following is a list of the Circuits with decreases of 2,000 and above :—

Circuit.	Decrease.
21. Birmingham	7,497
26. North Staffordshire ...	4,944
14. Leeds	3,947
55. Dorset	3,148
8. Manchester	2,332
7. West Cheshire	2,311
30. Glamorgan	2,300
50. Sussex	2,190
27. Hereford	2,173
22. Warwick	2,073
19. Derby	2,010

As regards Courts in the Metropolis and Home Counties, Circuits 37, 41, 42, and 45 have much about the same number of plaints as in 1910, Bow and Shoreditch shows a decrease of 1,518, Brompton and Marylebone a decrease of 1,019, and the City of London Court 1,349. Westminster, on the other hand, showed an increase of 539. A point to be noted is that the decrease appears to have been equally in the figures for the agricultural districts and in those for manufacturing centres.

In some instances the decreases were on circuits or in towns in which there were extensive strikes; for example, North Staffordshire (coal mines and marl-hole labourers); Leeds (clothing, engineering, and employees of local authorities); Glamorgan (coal mines); West Cheshire (shipbuilding strike); Manchester (coal mines, textile workers, building trade, transport, railway, engineering, and rubber workers); Derby (textile trade). In Liverpool, which was one of the centres of the general strike and labour disturbances there was a decrease of 1,430. Durham Circuit shows an increase of no less than 3,836 plaints, of which I can suggest no explanation.

With reference to the remarkable decrease in Birmingham the Registrar writes:—

"We believe the decrease to be principally in actions entered against working men for very small amounts. The main reason for the decrease is that the industrial credit trade is not being pushed among the working classes here to anything like the same extent as was the case five or six years ago, as traders have realised that it cannot profitably be carried on where the customer is engaged in unskilled labour. No doubt, the fact that much stricter evidence is required before a commitment order is obtained, than was the case some years ago, has done something to strengthen this conviction in the minds of the traders.

"It is difficult to explain why the decrease of plaints in Birmingham in 1911 should be greater than the average throughout the country. The reason probably is that until the last few years the industrial credit trade flourished here to a greater extent than most other places. It is also possible that the difficulty of obtaining commitment orders here has caused certain traders to transfer their work to other neighbouring courts where the conditions are perhaps slightly easier.

"The total number of plaints entered during the year was 53,502 as against 60,999. This number is dissected in the annual returns as follows:—

Not exceeding £20		53,093
A decrease of ...	7,464
Above £20 and not exceeding £50...		330
A decrease of ...	24
Between £50 and £100		72
A decrease of ...	6
Above £100		7
A decrease of ...	3
	7,497	53,502

"Dividing the plaints into ordinary and default summonses, the ordinaries shew a decrease of 5,853 and the defaults a decrease of 1,644. It will thus be seen that the decrease in the total number appears to be spread over large and small cases and ordinary and default summonses. This shrinkage has now been going on for seven years. The high-water mark was reached in 1904, and for the first three years after that the decline was not very rapid or continuous. For the last four years, however, the figures are as follows:—

	No. of Plaints.	Amount.
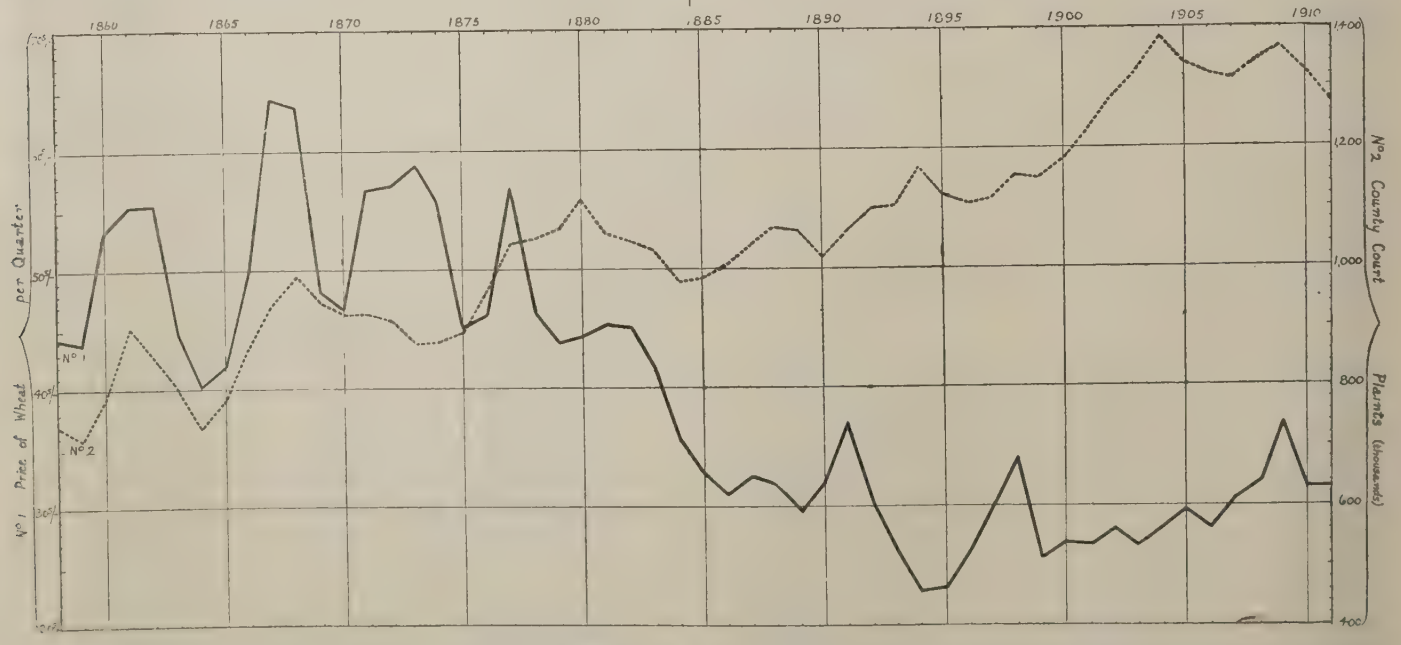
1908	66,862	189,386
1909	65,284	181,636
1910	60,999	171,802
1911	53,502	150,303

The causes affecting the decrease or increase are probably many. Alterations in the method of doing business, especially as to giving credit to the working classes affect the figures. So too, no doubt, in the long run, does the exercise of the powers of committal; it is safer to give credit when these powers are freely resorted to. But other causes affect the increase or decrease of county court plaints. I have taken the prices of wheat from 1858, and the number of plaints since that date. Until about 1890, the correspondence between the movements of the two curves in the following diagram is tolerably clear. Since then there has been more divergence; but on the whole the two curves coincide.



34,879 actions (as against 36,190), were determined on hearing before a Judge, and only 772 of these cases were tried by a Judge and Jury.

202,351 orders of commitment were made, and 143,303 warrants were issued; which are about the same numbers as those for last year.

72,735 debtors (as against 108,271) paid before arrest and 46,231 were arrested. The debtors actually imprisoned were 7,692 against 8,198; and of these 2,404 paid before the expiration of the term of imprisonment, so that only 5,288 debtors served their full term.

Bankruptcy.—In connection with the returns as to Bankruptcy (Tables XXXIX., LXXIII., LXXXVII., and LXXXVIII.) I have grouped together some information as to matters closely connected in four tables. All of them relate to indebtednes and losses in trade ; they throw some light upon the condition of trade, and they may be instructive as to the causes affecting the volume of litigation. The first relates to the losses by bankruptcy, so far as shown by debtors' statements.

The above table shows an increase in deficiency of assets ; the greatest deficiency being in 1910. Much the same results appear from the second table, which shows the estimated loss from the winding up of companies ; the greatest deficiency being in 1911.

A further table brings out the fact that the proportion of companies wound up to those registered remains substantially the same, but that the largest number of companies ordered to be wound up was also in 1911.

Another table shows the number of bills of sale for the same period. It indicates a slight decrease ; the maximum being reached in 1905 or 1909.

In 1882, the date of the last statute regulating Bills of Sale, there were 49,074 Bills of Sale registered and re-registered ; but the figures for the next year dropped to 13,355, and from that date the figures gradually declined to 6,629 in 1902. The changes since that date are shown in the following table.

A further table shows the writs of execution for the last ten years. The County Court figures show an increase which reached its maximum in 1909 ; the High Court figures, on the other hand, indicate an almost continuous decline, with one exception, since 1904. Taking together the writs of execution issued in all courts, the highest figures were in 1909 and 1910.

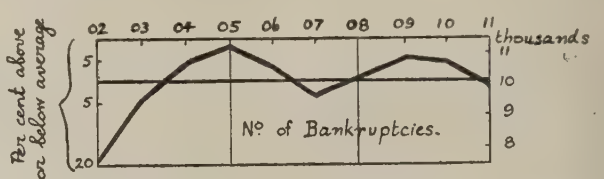
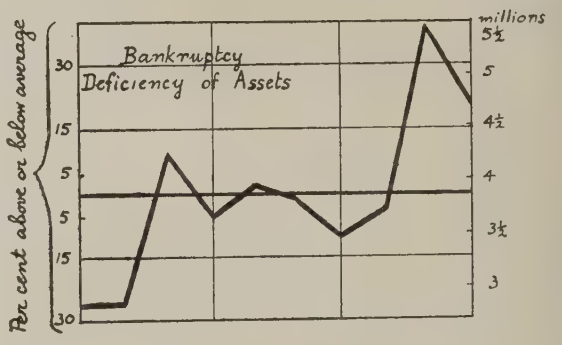
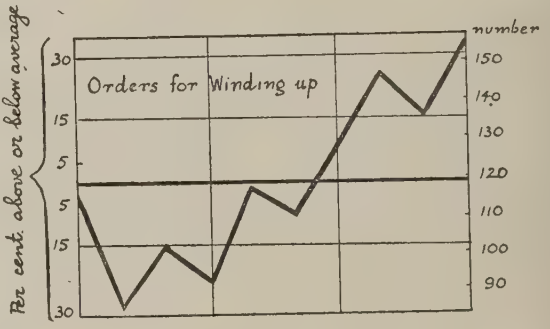
The significance of these diverse Tables will be plain from the annexed diagrams, which show (a), that the curve for bankruptcies which rises and falls at intervals of five or six years, does not altogether coincide with the curve for companies winding up; (b) that deficiencies in the assets of bankrupts and companies wound up have increased concurrently; (c) that Bills of Sale on the whole follow the same course as bankruptcies.

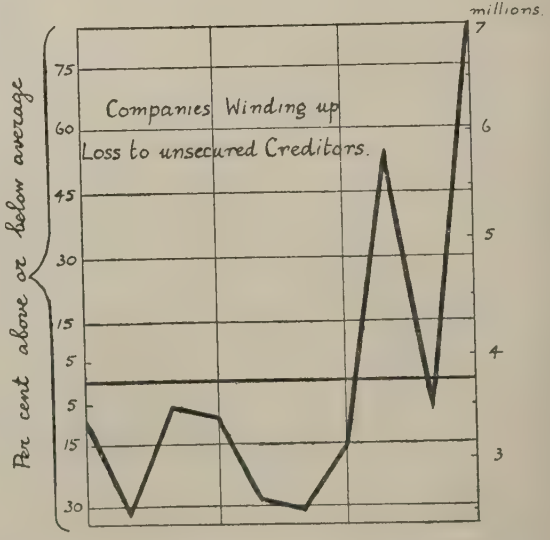
It will be found also that there is a substantial likeness between the rise and fall in bankruptcies and in the Civil Proceedings in Civil Courts, as appears from diagram 1.

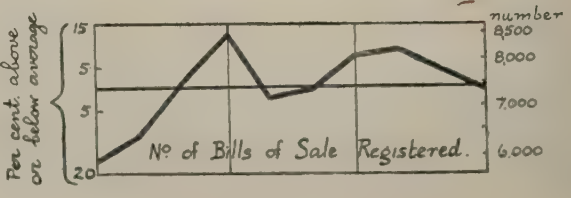
It may be pointed out that on any estimate of the annual income of the Country the total deficiencies in bankruptcies and windings-up are a very small fraction of the whole.











The chief results shown by the returns for the year 1911 are these :—

(1.) A considerable decrease in the total proceedings begun in all Courts.
(2.) A decrease in the total actions heard and determined &c. in all Courts.
(3.) A decline, on the whole, in the business of the High Court and the County Courts.
(4.) A slight decline in the actions disposed of in the Chancery and King's Bench Divisions.
(5.) A slight increase in the civil business on circuit.
(6.) An increase in the petitions presented in matrimonial causes.

Notes to the Comparative Tables.

NOTES TO TABLES A TO F.

(1.) These tables are compiled from the previous volumes of Judicial Statistics, supplemented by particulars obtained from the annual returns presented to Parliament relative to County Courts, Bankruptcy, Companies Winding Up, &c., and occasional returns as to Divorce and other matters.

(2.) With a few exceptions the figures for the High Court prior to 1894 are for years ended 31st October, and the figures for other courts, &c., are for calendar years.

(3.) Percentages are expressed to the nearest decimal figure, and amounts are stated to the nearest £. In cases in which the figures for the whole of a quinquennial period are not obtainable, the annual average for the number of years for which figures are available is inserted.

(4.) The nature of the proceedings included under the condensed headings of the comparative tables can in many instances be ascertained by referring to the corresponding annual table.

NOTES TO TABLE A.

(5.) The King's Bench figures for 1896 to 1911 include certain originating proceedings not previously furnished.

(6.) For years previous to 1895 all proceedings begun in District Registries, except Chancery proceedings at Liverpool and Manchester, are included in the figures for the King's Bench Division. Since 1895 information as to the Chancery, King's Bench, and Admiralty proceedings has been furnished separately for all District Registries.

NOTES TO TABLE B.

(7.) Central Office and District Registries.—The Central Office was established as from 28th October, 1875, by Section 4 of the Judicature Act, 1879. The statistics of proceedings commenced in the Central Office include petitions presented at the office of the Chancery Registrars. District Registries were instituted in 1876 by Section 60 of the Judicature Act, 1873, but proceedings relating to the Chancery Division were not separately distinguished in the returns furnished by the District Registrars prior to 1895, and the figures for originating proceedings in District Registries shown in the table from 1888 to 1894 consist only of proceedings commenced in the Liverpool and Manchester District Registries. The figures under certain other headings for the period from 1886 to 1894 include a small proportion of proceedings in the Liverpool and Manchester District Registries. Since 1894 proceedings in all District Registries are included.

(8.) Complete information as to Writs of Execution has been furnished only since 1894.

(9.) Suitors' Funds Accounts.—The funds for all divisions of the Supreme Court were transferred to the Paymaster-General, for and on behalf of the Supreme Court, by the Act 46 & 47 Vict. c. 29, s. 2.

NOTES TO TABLE C.

(10.) The figures for years previous to 1895 include a small proportion of cases belonging to other Divisions of the High Court.

(11.) Previous to 1894 the statistics relating to Official Referees include references of all descriptions. (See Table LVI (a).) From 1894 the figures include only references of the whole cause or matter. (Table LVI (a) Col. 8.)

(12.) Actions tried or otherwise disposed of.—The results shown in the annual tables have been classified as follows :—

"Verdict or judgment for plaintiff" includes verdict for plaintiff, verdict for plaintiff subject to special case, and verdict by consent with reference.

"Verdict or judgment for defendant" includes verdict for defendant, and judgment dismissing action.

"Otherwise disposed of" (London and Middlesex) includes referred, jury discharged without verdict, juror withdrawn, judgment on non-suit, referred to official referee, and otherwise disposed of.

(On Circuit) includes in years previous to 1894 the remainder of the actions excluding remanets and cases in which the venue was changed : the actions disposed of otherwise than in court not being separately distinguished.

(Before Official Referees) includes in years previous to 1894 the remainder of the actions disposed of.

(13.) Complete information as to "Other Writs" has been furnished only since 1895.

NOTE TO TABLE D.

(14.) The first part of this table, to "Fees—Amount received" inclusive, contains a summary of proceedings in the Divorce Court, compiled from returns furnished by the Divorce Registry for insertion in the annual volumes of Judicial Statistics, and shows the number of decrees and other proceedings in each year irrespective of the years in which the petitions were presented. The Figures are for the calendar year, with this exception, the figures from 1887 to 1893 are for the year ended on 31st October. The second part of the table for years previous to 1895 was mainly compiled from three Parliamentary Returns [House of Commons 1889 (90), 1894 (67), and 1896 (378)], and shows the results of the petitions presented in each year ended 31st December for dissolution of marriage or for judicial separation whether the cause is terminated in the same year or not. The columns for 1895 to 1911 show the number of decrees, &c., made in those years without regard to the year in which the petitions were presented. Besides the variations in years previous to 1895 between the figures of the two portions of the table, due to the different principles upon which the returns were compiled, there are some discrepancies in the number of petitions, &c., which cannot now be explained.

ANNUAL TABLES FOR THE YEAR 1911.

NOTE.—The following tables have been compiled mainly from special returns furnished to the Secretary of State by the officers of the various courts. The information relative to Receipts and Expenditure, County Courts, Bankruptcy, Companies Winding Up, and certain other matters has been chiefly obtained from returns presented to Parliament.

Note.—Tables XXII to XXIV include Actions for Trial in London and Middlesex, on Circuit, and before the Official Referees.

NOTE TO TABLE XXI.

(a) Orders in Chambers.—A large proportion of the orders made in chambers were never drawn up, and consequently, as to these, no returns can be given. From this cause there would naturally appear a large difference between the total numbers of summonses and orders, were it not for the orders made on ex parte applications, as to which no summonses are issued.

Orders "varied" and "reversed" are nearly always drawn up. On the other hand a large proportion of the orders "affirmed" are not drawn up. This greatly affects the figures as to the "results of appeals."

NOTE TO TABLES XXII, XXV (c) AND XXVI (c).

(b.) Actions undefended.—This includes cases in which the defendant does not appear and in which judgment is given against him in consequence, but not cases in which judgment or verdict is given by consent after the case has been opened in court, nor cases in which the defendant appears but not the plaintiff.

NOTES TO TABLES XXIII, XXIV, XXV (a) and (b), XXVI (a) and (b) AND LVI (a), (b), (c) and (d).

(c.) Nature of Action.—An action in which two or more causes of action are joined is counted as a single action. The entry is made against the cause of action in respect of which the proceedings reach the furthest stage, or, if there is no difference in this respect, against the most important of the causes of action.

(d.) Referred to Official or Special Referee.—This includes only references of the whole cause or action, not references for report to the judge. Cases referred for report, and cases adjourned for further consideration, are entered according to the final result of the case, if known.

NOTES TO TABLES XXIV, XXV (b), XXVI (b) and (d) AND LVI (c) and (d).

(e.) Amount recovered.—The amount recovered includes counterclaims. In cases in which money is recovered on both claim and counterclaim, and in cases of account, the balance only is inserted. The amount recovered is no certain criterion of the importance of the actions tried, inasmuch as in many of the most important actions, such as trespass to land, rights of way, &c., and also test actions involving the disposal of very large sums, only nominal damages are recovered.

(f.) Judgments, &c., for Possession, Costs, &c.—This column includes cases in which the plaintiff recovers costs only, and also judgments for plaintiff in cases in which the judgment is not for a specified sum.

NOTES TO TABLE XXVI (d).

(g.) Commission days.—Column 17 excludes Commission days on which actions or prisoners were tried at some other assize town. Under ordinary circumstances the Commission Day is occupied by travelling and preparatory business, the Commission being opened on the day following, but very frequently Commission days are utilized for the completion of the business at the preceding or some other assize town. At Oakham and Beaumaris, on account of the small amount of business to be transacted, the Commission is opened and actions and prisoners tried on the Commission Day.

(h.) Number of days Judges sat.—If two or more courts are sitting on the same day, each sitting is entered as a separate day. Days on which both civil and criminal causes are tried are counted as two separate days in columns 18 and 19, but as only one day in column 20.

[c] The Masters are very frequently attended on adjourned summonses, and without summons or notice.
[d] The investment of cash is provided for, in most cases, by Rules and Special Orders, and consequently certificates from the Masters for that purpose are now rarely required.
[e] The amounts of cash directed to be paid, &c., under Orders do not include balances paid in by committees, payments by debtors, purchasers, &c., payments out of dividends to committees, nor payments of costs. The amounts in these cases are not specified in the Orders but have to be subsequently ascertained by certificate or verified by affidavit.
[f] The numbers and amounts of committees' and receivers' accounts are exclusive of cases in which the Masters have been satisfied, without the production of accounts and affidavits, of the due application of the lunatics' incomes.
[g] Orders have been made under Section 116 of the Lunacy Act, 1890, in many Lunacies under previous Acts which are now included in the matters under that Section. There are, however, patients under these Acts as to whom no such Orders have been made, but in the absence of any record in the Masters' Office, it cannot, without much labour and delay, be ascertained how many are still alive. The figures given previously to 1896 had reference only to the cases in which periodical accounts and enquiries were directed by the Lords Justices. There are in addition to the number of 4,052 under sec. 116, 331 cases in which fortune dealt with has become exhausted and no further steps are taken unless the lunatic recovers or becomes entitled to further estate.

TABLE LXII.—RAILWAY AND CANAL COMMISSION.—Applications and other Proceedings.

Note.—The Railway and Canal Commission is a special tribunal established to hear and determine complaints that reasonable facilities for traffic are withheld, or that undue preferences are shown, by railway and canal companies, and to deal with various other questions and differences in relation to the powers and obligations of railway and canal companies.

The Commission is also empowered to decide certain disputes arising in connection with the postal and telegraph services, and the supply of water to the Metropolis.

The jurisdiction of the Commission extends to Scotland and Ireland, and sittings may be held in any part of the Kingdom.

The Commission consists of two appointed and three ex-officio Commissioners. One appointed Commissioner must have experience in railway business. The ex-officio Commissioners are judges of the superior courts of England, Scotland and Ireland respectively.

A court is formed of the two appointed Commissioners and the ex-officio Commissioner nominated for the part of the Kingdom in which the sitting is held. The ex-officio Commissioner presides. For certain matters the Court may be held by the two appointed Commissioners only.

The Commission is a Court of Record. Its decisions on matters of fact are final : in matters of law an appeal lies to the superior courts. The Orders of the Commissioners are enforceable, either in accordance with special statutory provisions or as orders of the High Court. Damages may be awarded, but power to award costs is restricted.

(a.) NATURE AND RESULTS OF APPLICATIONS.

Note.—"Pending at commencement of year" may include applications made prior to the preceding year. "Applications pending at end of year" may include applications made in preceding years. Any cases shown in column 2 which were not disposed of during the year are included in column 12.

NOTE TO TABLES LXIX AND LXXVI.

(a.) Admiralty Jurisdiction.—Admiralty jurisdiction has been conferred on forty-two county courts (and the City of London Court) by Order in Council under 31 & 32 Vict. c. 71.

NOTE TO TABLES LXXIII AND LXXVI.

(b.) Bankruptcy Jurisdiction.—One hundred and thirty-five county courts have jurisdiction in Bankruptcy. Circuits Nos. 40 to 44 and the City of London Court have no jurisdiction in bankruptcy. They are comprised within the district of the London Bankruptcy Court, the jurisdiction of which was transferred to the High Court by s. 16 of the Judicature Act, 1873.

NOTES TO TABLE LXXVI.

(c.) Circuits.—Circuits Nos. 10, 23, 34, 39, 46, and 56, have been absorbed in adjoining circuits and the number of existing circuits is 53. Courts are held at 562 places, including the City of London Court. Circuit No. 38 has two permanent judges and the assistance of two others; Circuit No. 6 has two judges; Circuit No. 40 has one judge and the assistance of two others; Circuits Nos. 14, 21, 37, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47, and 48 have each one judge and the assistance of another; on each of the other circuits there is only one judge, and the judges of Circuits Nos. 11, 26, and 35 assist on other circuits. The total number of judges including the two judges of the City of London Court is 56.

(d.) City of London Court.—By 30 & 31 Vict. c. 142, which came into operation on the 1st January, 1868, the Sheriffs' Court of London was, under the title of the City of London Court, assimilated to the county courts The proceedings in this court are therefore included in the County Courts Tables.

[a] Of claims for compensation for non-fatal cases under the Workmen's Compensation Acts settled by agreement or by informal arbitration there is no record, except where one or other of the parties or the Arbitrator registers in the County Court a memorandum of the agreement or decision. This is provided for in Schedule II (8) of the Act of 1897 and in Schedule II (9) of the Act of 1906, but it is not compulsory. The statistics of agreements and of informal arbitrations are therefore incomplete; they represent, indeed, only a very small fraction of the cases so dealt with.
[b] Including 31 cases in which 1*d.* per week was awarded.
[c] Including only the costs (including Court fees) of successful parties, whether taxed, or allowed by the Judge at a fixed sum or agreed amounts specified in the award or judgment.
[d] Including 14 cases in which the amount was 1*d.* per week.
[e] Including 7 cases stated to have been dealt with under Section 1 (4) of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

TABLE LXXXVI.—PROCEEDINGS IN THE LAND REGISTRY.

(a) MIDDLESEX DEEDS REGISTRY.

The following statements have been furnished by the Registrar of the Land Registry :—

"The Middlesex Registry was established by an Act of Queen Anne in 1709 (7 Anne, c. 20), for the purpose of preventing fraud by the suppression of deeds.

In 1703, 1707, and 1735, similar Acts were passed applying to the West, East, and North Ridings of Yorkshire respectively. In 1739 and 1740, Bills for the general registration of deeds were passed by the House of Commons and by the House of Lords respectively, but went no further, owing to prorogations of Parliament. The Real Property Commissioners of 1830 unanimously reported in favour of general registration. The Registration and Conveyancing Commission of 1850 reported in favour of a general register of assurances. Since that time the superior advantages of registration of title have prevented any great interest being taken in the subject of deed registration, though the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Land Titles and Transfer recommended, amongst other things, general registries of deeds. (See p. xiv. of their Report of 29th June 1879.) That the deed registries have effected their primary object of suppressing fraud is clear from general experience, and from the evidence and report of the last-mentioned Select Committee, who state it as a 'noteworthy fact that all the recent perpetrators of land frauds have selected for their operations Counties and Districts where no Registry exists.' (Report, p. ix.)

The administration of the Middlesex Registry was entrusted, under the Act of Queen Anne, to four Registrars, who divided the fees taken after paying the expenses of the Office. Owing to the growth of London, this surplus revenue had in late times amounted to several thousand pounds a year, and the registrarships were practically sinecures. Many years ago an arrangement was made for not filling up vacancies in these offices, and on the death of Lord Truro, the last of the Registrars, in 1891, an Act was passed—Land Registry (Middlesex Deeds) Act, 1891, (54 and 55 Vict., c. 64)—for incorporating the office with the Land Registry. The business is now carried on at the Land Registry, Lincoln's Inn Fields."

The following Table shows the nature and amount of the work done under the regulations which came into force on the 1st of April 1892 :—

ICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND FOR THE YEAR 1911.

PART I.—CRIMINAL STATISTICS.

REPORT

TO

S EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,
&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

I.—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I.—Introductory Remarks.

I now submit the Judicial Statistics, Volume I. (Criminal), for Ireland ıe year 1911.

ere is no essential change in the Tables from which the text is derived. Certain fications have been made in the tables relating to probation orders, showing ble 29 the probation orders made after conviction in Court of Assizes.

ew table (No. 45) has been added by the General Prisons Board, showing certain ulars relating to male prisoners serving sentences of preventive detention (as ial criminals).

e classification of crimes into those which are indictable and those that ıon-indictable is adopted in this Report. The indictable offences are fied in six divisions as follows:—

Classification of offences.

Class I.—Offences against the person.
,, II.—Offences against property with violence.
,, III.—Offences against property without violence.
,, IV.—Malicious injuries to property.
,, V.—Forgery and offences against the currency.
,, VI.—Other offences not included in the above classes.

non-indictable offences are classified, as far as possible, according to character or in reference to the Statutes under which they become able to the law. The figures relating to non-indictable offences are n in the tables relating to the criminal business in the Courts of Summary liction, in which the cases summarily disposed of are classified under llowing headings:—

A.—Indictable offences disposed of summarily.
B.—Other offences disposed of summarily.

ıough classed as offences, many of the minor cases in Section B partake of a civil than a criminal character.

ddition to the cases disposed of by summary jurisdiction, there is a large number f cases disposed of summarily, such being known as quasi-criminal These are not included in the tables relating to criminal offences, but a special table allotted to them. The more numerous matters in which hree Schedules, showing in detail alterations in classification introduced in the year 1895, will be found on 33-55 of the Criminal Statistics for that year.

applications for orders were instituted in the year 1911 in quasi-criminal ca were as follows:—

Quasi-criminal cases.

1. Children { (a) Attendance orders under Education Act. (b) Committed to Industrial Schools.
2. Dogs, Licences for.
3. Sureties.
4. Sanitary Law.
5. Goods Stolen (Restoration of).
6. Maintenance.
7. Dangerous and Neglected Structures (Orders relating to).

The state of crime in Ireland and the proceedings in Criminal Courts shown in the comparative tables on pages xxvi-xxxvi, for each of the twe years 1892-1911; quinquennial averages under each head are also given.

Comparative Tables.

The Summary Tables A, B, and C, contain these comparisons and re respectively, to the number of persons for trial at Assizes and Quarter Sessio cases dealt with in Courts of Summary Jurisdiction; and all offences of indictable character reported to the police. Table D gives a summary Tables A, B, and C under condensed headings of the averages for each qu quennium and for the year 1911. In Table E (Parts I. and II.), wh follows, the geographical distribution of crime and of the principal fo thereof, during the last quinquennial period, is shown by the rates of crimes to population in each county in Ireland. Part I. of this Table gives this in mation regarding the counties grouped according to their several degree criminality, under each of the selected heads, and Part II. shows the coun arranged in alphabetical order by provinces.

II.—GENERAL REVIEW.

II.—General Review.

Indictable offences,* which numbered 9,873 in 1909, were 9,870 in 1910, and in year under notice declined to 9,831, being a decrease of 39. The total is equal t annual rate of 2.25 per 1,000 of the population of Ireland, estimated to the mi of the year 1911, as compared with a rate of 2.26 per 1,000 in each of the years and 1910, and a rate of 2.35 in the year 1908. With reference to the persons t for non-indictable offences in the year under notice, the number fell from 193 in 1910 to 185,345 in 1911, a decrease of 8,290.† There was a decrease of 1,50 the number of persons tried for drunkenness in 1911 as compared with the prece year, and compared with the average for the 10 years, 1901 to 1910, there w decrease of 16,009 persons tried for this offence.

Standards by which to measure prevalence of crime.

Many of the non-indictable offences being in the nature of civil offences, omitted in the calculation of the amount of crime in the country, the n ber of "indictable offences" only being adopted as the standard for mation. Besides, cases obviously of a civil character—such as those in wh orders are made to maintain certain civil rights, or to secure the discha of civil duties—are now shown separately under the title of Quasi-crim Offences (Table 17). These offences, which in the year 1910 amounted to 24, decreased in the year 1911 to 22,878. Prior to 1895 the majority of cases were found among "Cases disposed of Summarily," and included in "Minor Offences" in the reports under the old system. Proc ings against weekly tenants in towns, which are especially numerous in D lin, formed another group of the cases "Disposed of Summarily." T appeared both in the Civil and the Criminal statistics; they are now separ from the Criminal statistics proper. As they tended to increase the nun of apparent crimes committed, they must be allowed for when institu comparisons with the statistics for years anterior to 1895.

* See Note (*), pp. xxviii—ix.

† A remarkable increase in recent years is observable in the number of prosecutions against owners and dri carts under the Highway Acts—the number of persons proceeded against in the years 1911, 1910, 190 1908 being 26,325, 26,021, 30,748 and 31,559, respectively; as against 4,326 in the year 1907.

he serious and the minor offences in each of the years 1910 and 1911, and their o to the population, are summarised in the following comparative statement. The res for cases disposed of summarily show the number of persons proceeded against such cases; those for cases not disposed of summarily have reference to the nber of crimes committed.

Indictable offences per 10,000 of population in 1911 and ten preceding years.

n the following table the rates per 10,000 of the population estimated to the ddle of the respective years for each of the 6 classes of indictable offences are wn for each of the ten years 1901–1910, also the annual average rate of each ss of offence for the decade, the final column giving the corresponding rates for year 1911. This statement shows the fluctuations which have taken place ring the eleven years in the proportional number of the more serious offences in land, and it also shows that, measured by the number of indictable offences comtted in proportion to the population, the crime rate in 1911 was below that for preceding year, but above the average for the ten years 1901–1910. The e for offences against the person was slightly below the average, and slightly ve the rate for 1910. The rate for malicious injury against property was 2.09, against the average 1.38, and the rate in 1910 of 1.95. The rate for other offences inst property was above the average, and above the rate for 1910, and the rate for gery and offences against the currency increased from 0.10 per 10,000 in the year 0 to 0.11 in the year 1911. In Class VI. the rate was 1.24 for the year 1911, the e for 1910 being 1.38, and the average rate 1.14—see page xi., and Table 23.

III.—Nature of Crimes.

III.—NATURE OF CRIMES.

With regard to each of the undermentioned six classes of crime, the figures quot are taken from the returns of cases reported to the police.

The heads under which they are grouped are as follow:—

Classification of serious crimes. Table 19 and Comparative Table C.

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

CLASS VI.—OTHER OFFENCES NOT INCLUDED IN THE ABOVE CLASSES.

The total number of such crimes (indictable offences) in 1911 was 9,831, or 2. per 1,000 of the population, being 39 below the number for the preceding year, a 42 below the number for the year 1909.

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

Offences against the person.

The number of offences against the person, as reported to the police, which w 526 in each of the years 1906 and 1907, in the year 1908 rose to 627. In the ye 1909 the number fell to 523, and rose in the year 1910 to 574, and in the period unc notice to 580.

Charges of murder numbered 25; of these 19 were for murder of persons ag above one year, and 6 were for murder of infants aged one year or under, the to number of charges being 8 under the aggregate number for the preceding year, a one below the average for the years 1906–1910. Fifteen attempted murders we reported, as compared with 6 for the preceding year, 10 for the year 1909, and average of 13 for the 5 years ending with 1910. The reported cases of manslaught numbered 35, being 20 under the number for the year 1910, and also 7 under t average for the five years 1906–1910. Altogether, the cases coming under the three headings were 75 in number, being under the number in 1910 by 19.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

Offences against property with violence.

Offences against property with violence reported to the police numbered 8(being 135 over the number for the preceding year, 46 under that for the ye 1909, and 62 over the average for the five years 1906–1910. The principal crim in this class are house and shop breaking, numbering 648, burglary 155, and 48 ro bery and assaults with intent to rob.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

Offences against property without violence.

The offences in this class, which are principally cases of larceny, form about per cent. of all indictable offences reported to the police in 1911. The actu number of these offences was 6,878, being 186 under the number in the year 191 and 256 under the number in 1909.

Class IV.—Malicious Injuries to Property.

Malicious Injuries to property.

ases of injuries to property, reported as malicious, numbered 916, and were 64 than the number recorded for the preceding year, 253 over the average the five years 1906–1910, 366 over the average for the five years 1901–, and 150 over the average for the five years 1896–1900. These offences in 1911 ided 251 cases of arson, 80 of setting fire to crops, plantations, &c., and 72 of g and maiming cattle. There were 513 cases of other malicious injuries to erty, as against 520 in the year 1910, and 353 in the year 1909.

Class V.—Forgery and Offences against the Currency.

Forgery and Offences against the Currency.

e offences in Class V. reported in the year 1911 rose slightly from 44 in 1910 7, the average for the five years 1906–1910 being 48.4; the cases of coining and ring counterfeit coin numbered 32, as compared with 27 in 1910.

Class VI.—Other Indictable Offences.

Other indictable offences.

dictable offences which were not included in any of the preceding groups reported g the year 1911 numbered 543, being 61 below the number in the year 1910. the five years 1906–1910 the average number of such offences was 569. Among offences there were 263 cases of intimidation by Threatening Letters, Notices, or rwise (showing a decrease of 75, as compared with the corresponding number for preceding year). There were 36 (a decrease of 12, as compared with the preceding) assaults by firing shots into dwelling-houses. There were 86 attempts to mit suicide, as against 85 in the year 1910. There were also 37 cases of habitual kards reported to the police, the number in 1910 being 42.

Offences disposed of Summarily.

Offences disposed of summarily. Table 15.

Table 15 the offences disposed of summarily are classified into two divisions, bles (A) and (B) respectively. Under head (A) some of the indictable offences, h have been discussed in the above remarks dealing with the police returns of s reported, will be found, namely, those in which the charges were disposed of urts of Summary Jurisdiction. This number in 1911 was 4,311, or nearly 44 ent. of the total number of indictable offences, and of these 4,311 offences, , were cases of larceny.

ction B includes all the non-indictable offences. Persons charged with such ces in 1911 numbered 185,345.* or 42.4 per 1,000 of the estimated population. rate represented by offences of this class in 1909 was 46.1 per 1,000, and in 1910 s 44.3 per 1,000. The cases in this Section include a large number of cases king of a civil rather than of a criminal character, such as Education Acts, ces in relation to Highway Acts, some of the offences against the Police Regus, Dogs, Diseases of Animals Act, Stage and Hackney Carriage Regulations, ary Laws, Labour Laws, &c.

Drunkenness and assaults. Tables 15 and 16.

e number of cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly con- has decreased for the whole of Ireland; nevertheless, such cases, including ases of assaults, constituted 39.3 per cent. of the total offences committed in ear 1911, as compared with 38.0 per cent. for such offences in the year 1910. number of assaults (comprising aggravated assaults, assaults on constables, and ion assaults) in 1911 was 13,927, or 7.1 per cent. of all offences committed.

* See Note (†) on page viii.

III.—Nature of Crimes.

The number of cases of drunkenness amounted to 62,819, being 32.2 per cent. of offences committed, and 33.1 per cent. of all cases disposed of summarily. Ca of assault increased from 13,085 in 1910 to 13,927 in 1911 ; the charges of drunk ness show a decrease of 1,503—from 64,322 in 1910 to 62,819 in 1911.

The cases of assault disposed of summarily, and the cases of drunkenness (includi drunkenness and disorderly conduct) in 1911, compared with each of the ten ye preceding, also the general average for these 10 years, are shown in the follow tabular statement :—

——	1901.	1902.	1903.	1904.	1905.	1906.	1907.	1908.	1909.	1910.	Average Annual Number 1901–1910.	1911

IV.—Geographical Distribution of Crime in 1910 and 1911.

Taking the indictable offences committed as the standard for the estimation the prevalence of crime, it appears for the county and city districts of Ireland such offences that there was an increase in 21 districts, and a decrease in 18, and one, Waterford County, there was no change.

Offences in each county Tables 15 and 23.

The increase in indictable offences ranged from 2 in Limerick County to 82 in Dub Metropolitan district. Between these extremes the increases were, 3 in Waterf City, 6 in each of King's County and Louth, 9 in Westmeath, 10 in Cork City a Leitrim, 13 in Cavan and Roscommon, 15 in Kildare, 16 in Longford, 17 in Sli 20 in Cork, W.R., 25 in Queen's County, 25 in Tipperary, N.R., 26 in Arma 29 in Down, 30 in Monaghan, 32 in Dublin County, and 36 in Antrim.

The counties or cities in which a decrease of indictable crime is shown are In Galway 95, in Belfast City 62, in Londonderry City 61, in Wexford 35, in Tyr 34, in Mayo 28, in Clare 24, in Meath and Fermanagh 22, in Wicklow 21, in K kenny 19, in Carlow 11, in Kerry 8, in Londonderry County 7, in Limerick City in Donegal 5, in Cork, E.R., 3, and in Tipperary, S.R., one.

In 15 districts an increase and in 25 a decrease for non-indictable offences has tak place.

Offences in each county per 100,000 of population.

The numbers of all forms of offences, taken collectively, show an increase in and a decrease in 25 districts.

The various districts are arranged from the lowest to the highest rate per 100,0 inhabitants (according to the Census of 1911, unrevised numbers) for each gro and for the total of all kinds of crime in the year 1911, in the following lists:—

Offences in Large Town Districts compared with those in other Districts.

According to the table which follows, it appears that (1) the aggregate rate for nces of all kinds, (2) the rate for all indictable offences, and (3) for all non-ictable offences in the large town districts of Ireland (viz., those which in 1911 a population of 20,000 inhabitants or upwards) exceed the corresponding rates all other places. For cases of drunkenness, however (which are included also he non-indictable offences), the rate for the large town districts (11.7 per 1,000) elow that for the other parts of Ireland, the rate for the other parts being 15.1 1,000 of the Census population, 1911. Both these rates compare favourably the corresponding rates for the year 1901, when the rate for drunkenness in the e town districts was 20.6 per 1,000, and the rate for all other parts of Ireland 6 per 1,000.

he rates for indictable offences in the large town districts decreased in Dublin n 8.5 per 1,000 in 1910 to 8.2 in 1911; in Limerick from 2.5 to 2.4 per 1,000; Belfast from 5.4 to 4.7 per 1,000; and in Londonderry from 3.6 to 2.0 per 1,000. Cork the rate increased from 2.1 to 2.2 per 1,000, and in Waterford from 2.3 to per 1,000.

A review is given in Comparative Table B for twenty years (1892–1911) of the mber of persons tried summarily*; also a list of the special offences for each year ring the period, with the quinquennial averages, is contained therein, Notes are pplied with Tables 14 and 15 explanatory of these Tables, and consequently of mparative Table B. In connection with the subject of Courts of Summary Jurisction, attention may be again called to the Table (17) of Quasi-Criminal cases dealt ith already at page xii.

Appeals to Quarter Sessions.

In Section (A), Table 18, the nature of convictions by Magistrates appealed against, nd the result of appeals, are given for the year 1911. The appeals numbered 388, s against 371 in the year 1910. Of the total in 1911, 157 were affirmed, 111 were versed, 64 were varied, and 56 were otherwise disposed of. Appeals to Quarter Sessions. Table 18.

Persons under Police Supervision.

Returns from the several counties of persons under police supervision are given n Table 24. This Table furnishes details with respect to (a) the number of persons 136) under police supervision, (b) the disposal of persons under police supervision, nd (c) the conduct of persons under police supervision. VI.—Criminals and others in confinement and known Criminals at large.

Habitual Criminals at Large.

Habitual Criminals at large. Table 25.

The number of habitual criminals at large in Ireland in 1911 was 724. The to includes 545 thieves, 58 receivers, and 121 persons otherwise habitually engag in crime.

Persons in Confinement.

Persons in Confinement. Admissions to places of detention. Tables 32, 46, 49, and 53.

The admissions to places of detention of persons committed in the year 1911 un the various methods of procedure for the punishment or the prevention of crime a shown as follows:—

Admissions to Places of Detention.	Men and Boys.	Women and Girls.	Total.
Total in all Ireland,	21,049	9,740	30,789
Into Prisons, Bridewells, and Reformatories:—
Into Local and Convict Prisons,	18,463	7,986	26,449
Into Bridewells,	309	56	365
Into Reformatories,	152	18	170
Total,	18,924	8,060	26,984
Into Lunatic Asylums (criminal and dangerous lunatics),	1,517	1,027	2,544
Into Industrial Schools,	608	653	1,261

It will be seen from this that there were 30,789 persons admitted to places of co finement during the year 1911, and that of these 21,049, more than two-thirds, we males, and 9,740, or under one-third, were females. Among these 30,789, there we 2,544 lunatics admitted into asylums, and 1,261 children admitted into industri schools; so that 3,805, or more than 12 per cent. of the total admissions to plac of detention, were of persons who cannot be considered as criminals. In additi to these exceptions there were 28 inebriates sent to reformatories and 64 youthf offenders sentenced to detention in a Borstal institution. See Table 5.

During the year 1911 the receptions of prisoners numbered 26,814, being 2,5 below the number for 1910, and 5,055 below that for 1909. Compared with 191 the admissions of criminal and dangerous lunatics to Lunatic Asylums show a increase of 121. The number of children admitted to Industrial Schools in 19 was 1,191, the number being 1,261 in 1911; and the admissions to Reformatorie which were 178 in 1910, declined to 170 in the year under notice.

The number of convicted prisoners (other than those committed for naval a military offences) committed to the local prisons, bridewells, and convict priso during the year 1911 (see Table 37) is shown by age-periods and sexes in the followi tabular statement:—

7,380 convicted females committed to prison in the year 1911. The number of victed females committed to prison in the year 1911 shows a decrease of 1,417, mpared with that for the year 1910; the number of boys under 16 years was 4, hom all were over 12 years of age. The total number of convicted males com- ed to prison was 15,597, or more than twice the number of convicted females. crease of 1,130 is shown in the number of convicted males during 1911, as com- d with the number in 1910. Of the males, 14.6 per cent., and of the females, per cent., were over 50 years of age. In Table 32 the number of prisoners re- d into each prison will be found, and in Tables 33*a* and 33*b* particulars as to the osal of prisoners are given. Particulars as to the nature of sentences are given able 34, and details regarding the length of these sentences in Table 35.

very large proportion of those admitted to prison were persons previously con- d, or who were habitual criminals. Of 22,977 convicted prisoners admitted he local prisons, bridewells, and convict prisons during the year 1911, there were 09, or about 80 per cent., who had been previously convicted. Of these, 2,005 been once previously convicted, 1,610 twice, 1,458 thrice, 1,216 four times, 5 five times, 3,112 six to ten times, 3,015 from eleven to twenty times, and 5,338 e twenty times. The figures for the last two periods show that there were 3 committals of persons, or 36.4 per cent. of the total number of convicted oners admitted to prison during the year, who had previously been convicted ards of ten times, as compared with 9,329, or 36.5 per cent., in the year 1910.

he above statement shows that, while 23.5 per cent. of the convicted prisoners com- ted to prison in 1911 were absolutely illiterate, only 12.7 per cent. of the general ulation in 1901, aged 12 years and upwards, were in a similar condition as regards cation. It must, however, be borne in mind that the Census figures here quoted for the population of all ranks, and are not limited to the classes which furnish the at bulk of the prisoners.

lthough previous occupations of convicted prisoners are given in Table 40, s impossible to institute comparisons between the occupations of prisoners those of the general population in a manner similar to that adopted above arding education, as the classification of occupations is different in several pects from that employed by the Census Commissioners in their Report. may, however, be gathered that, of the 22,977 prisoners convicted, 264 onged to the domestic servant class; 12,013 to labourers, charwomen, and needle- nen; 348 to the class of factory workers; 2,824 to the class of mechanics and led workers; 58 were foremen or overlookers of labour; 155 belonged to the class hopmen, shopwomen, and clerks; 2,600 to the class of shopkeepers and dealers; o professional employment; 206 to the class of sailors, marines, and soldiers;

State Inebriate Reformatories. Table 53.

The receptions and discharges from Inebriate Reformatories are given in Table
It appears from Section A of the Table that there was a total of 62 persons admi during the year; of this figure, 33 were on indictment and 29 were summarily c mitted. In Section B, which gives the discharges, it may be seen that these numbe

Prevention of Crime (Clonmel Borstal Institution.)

Clonmel Borstal Institution. Table 44.

Table 44, in 3 divisions, furnished by the Prisons Board, gives the number of pers received in 1911 into the Clonmel Borstal Institution—namely, 68. The sec division gives the offences and the periods of detention ordered, and the third number of inmates licensed, discharged, or otherwise disposed of during the year.

Preventive Detention (Habitual Criminals).

Preventive detentions. Table 45

In a new Table (45) which has been prepared by the Prisons Board the particu regarding Male Prisoners serving sentences of preventive detention in 1911 are forth. From this it appears that 4 prisoners began to serve sentences of preven detention during the year; the second division of the table shows the offences periods of preventive detention; the third gives the previous convictions; and in fourth the ages of the prisoners are given.

Reformatory Schools.

Reformatory Schools—Number in confinement, &c. Tables 46-48.

In Tables 46–51 the statistics of the Reformatory and Industrial Schools of Irel are set forth.

For the year 1911 the number of children committed to Reformatories was showing a diminution of 8 as compared with the committals for the preceding y
The number of boys committed in 1911 was 152, or 10 less than in the year 1910, the number of girls 17, or 2 more than the number for 1910.

The Tables which follow supply figures referring to juvenile criminals, male female, under Reformatory control in the year 1911 which have been extracted f Tables 46–48.

The ages of the children admitted to Reformatory Schools during the year are given in the following table:—

Ages of children when admitted.	Boys and Girls.	Boys.	Girls.	Percentage of tot
				Boys.	Girls
Total, ...	169	152	17	100.	100

12 and under 14 years, . .	70	65	5	42·76	29·
14 and under 16 years, . .	99	87	12	57·24	70·

The above summary shows that of the 152 boys admitted to Reformatory Sch during the year 1911, there were 99 boys (or 57.24 per cent.) between 14 and 16 y of age, and of the 17 girls, 12 were stated to be 14 and under 16 years of age on mission.

* Under the Children Act which came into force on April 1, 1909, youthful offenders under 12 years of age cannot be legally committed to Reformatory Schools.

VI.—Criminals and others in confinement and known Criminals at large.

The state of instruction (on admission) of children committed to Reformatory hools is shown in the following statement:—

Degree of education Table 47.

—	Boys.	Girls.	Proportion per cent.

Moderate proficiency in reading and writing,	19	–	12·50	–
Read and write well . . .	1	–	0·66	–
Superior instruction, . . .	–	–	–	–

From the above, it appears that not one of the 17 girls and only 20 of the 152 boys mitted to Reformatory Schools could read and write with moderate proficiency.

From Table 47 it appears that of the total of the youthful offenders committed, all l been previously convicted with the exception of 62, 47 boys and 15 girls.

Discharges and Licences Table 48.

The numbers of children discharged or otherwise disposed of in Reformatory hools are given in Table 48. From this it appears that of the total discharged (132) nely, 118 boys and 14 girls, 123 were discharged on expiry of sentence, and 9 e discharged by the Chief Secretary absolutely. There were 37 licences issued; one nce was revoked before expiry of sentence, and one after expiry of sentence.

Number finally discharged. Table 48.

The number of young persons finally discharged from Reformatories in Ireland ing 1911 is shown in the following table:—

Number finally discharged in the year 1911.	Boys and Girls.	Boys.	Girls.

The foregoing table shows that of a total of 132 discharges in the year 1911, there e 118 of boys and 14 of girls.

Reformatory Schools—Licences granted or revoked. Table 48.

Particulars regarding the number of licences granted or revoked are shown in the owing table:—

nber released on licence for first time, . .	37	37	–
nber released on licence after revocation of previous licence, ...	–	–	–
nber of licences revoked, . . .	2	2	–

rom this table it appears that during the year 1911 there were 37 licences granted— 7 boys, and none to girls.

Industrial Schools.

VI.—Criminals and others in confinement and known Criminals at large.

Degree of Education. Table 50.

The following statement gives the state of education (on admission) of the boys girls admitted to Industrial Schools in Ireland during the year 1911:—

—	Year 1911.		Proportion per cent
	Boys.	Girls.	Boys.	Girls.
Neither read nor write,	381	402	62·7	61·6
Read and write imperfectly,	182	187	29·9	28·6
Moderate proficiency in reading and writing,	40	43	6·6	6·6
Read and write well,	5	21	0·8	3·2
Superior education,	–	–	–	–
Total,	608	653	100·	100·
	1,261

The foregoing summary, abstracted from Table 50, shows that the number of c dren admitted to Industrial Schools in Ireland during the year 1911 was 1,261. the total, 608 were males and 653 were females. With reference to the observati regarding the education of children who were sent to Reformatories, it may be no that only 0.8 per cent. of the boys and 3.2 per cent. of the girls sent to Indust Schools could read and write well.

Ages on admission to Industrial Schools. Table 50.

The ages of the children placed in Industrial Schools in the year 1911 are sh in the following tabular statement:—

Ages of Children.	Boys and Girls.	Boys.	Girls.	Percentage of Total
				Boys.	Girls.
Total,	1,261	608	653	100·	100·
Under 6 years,	254	79	175	13·0	26·8
6 and under 8 years,	278	130	148	21·4	22·7
8 and under 10 years,	255	131	124	21·5	19·(

12 and under 14 years,	198	107	91	17·6	13·9

It appears from Table 50 that the total number of children admitted to Indust Schools in the year 1911, 1,261, was an increase of 70 on the number admitted in year 1910. The number of girls admitted increased from 614 in 1910 to 653 in 1 and the number of boys increased from 577 in 1910 to 608 in the year under notic

It may be seen that 55.9 per cent. of boys admitted during last year, and 68.5 cent. of the girls were brought under training in these schools before they had reac the age of ten years.

Discharges and Licences. Table 51.

The numbers of discharges and licences are returned in Table 51. The particu regarding licences granted or revoked in the year 1911 are summarised in the foll ing statement:—

Licences granted or revoked in the year 1911.	Boys and Girls.	Boys.	Girls.
Number released on licence for first time,	321	237	84
Number released on licence after revocation of previous licence,	6	5	1
Number of licences revoked,	27	18	9

From above it appears that 321 children (237 boys and 84 girls) were released licence for the first time; that 6 children (5 boys and one girl) were released on lice after revocation of previous licence, and that in 27 cases (18 boys and 9 girls) licences previously granted were revoked.

The classification of admissions to Industrial Schools is given in Table 49.

Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5.

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 36 of the Criminal Statistics for 1895, except in some few cases where subsequent enactments have made further changes necessary.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assizes or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 24 to 26 of the Tables, column 24 giving the total number of such charges, column 25 the number resulting in convictions, and column 26 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 19) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns, 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually come before the Assizes or Quarters Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 13 ("Imprisonment") does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 19 and 23 ("Recognizances") include cases where recognizances are required, whether with or without sureties and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(h.) Columns 20 to 23 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence.

§ The Officers and Constables of the G Division are employed as "Detectives."

(a) Under the Dublin Corporation Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic., c. 264), the City boundary has been extended so as to comprise the Urban Districts of New Kilmainham, Drumcondra, Clonliffe and Glasnevin, Clontarf, and certain specified portions of the County. And under Section 61 of the same Act, the Lord Lieutenant has extended, by Order in Council of 23rd October, 1901, the Metropolitan Police District, so as to include so much of this added area as had not hitherto been comprised within such district.

(b) Exclusive of 1 Sergeant and 26 Constables employed in Government Departments and on private service with public bodies.

Notes to Tables 14, 15 16.

(a.) These Tables include only offences tried summarily. All indictable offences where the Court does not actually assume the power to determine the case summarily are excluded. Further, these Tables include only cases where the proceedings are criminal—that is, lead if successful to a conviction. There are a large number of cases which are quasi-criminal in character, but where the procedure is by complaint, leading, not to a conviction, but to the making of an order. These are provided for in a separate Table—No. 17.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in Tables 1, 3 and 5 (see notes to those Tables).

(c.) The offences included under each of the titles of offences in Column 1 are stated on page 46 of the Criminal Statistics for the year 1895, except in some few cases where subsequent Enactments have made further changes necessary.

Notes to Table 14.

(d.) Table 14 corresponds to Tables 1, 3, and 5, and (as regards length of sentences) to Tables 2 and 4.

(e.) Column 7, "Committed to Industrial Schools," includes only those committals to Industrial Schools where an offence is charged. Other committals to Industrial Schools where the proceedings are not criminal appear in Table 17, and also in Tables 49 to 51.

(f.) Columns 10 to 16, "Imprisonment," do not include terms of imprisonment in default of paying fine or of finding sureties.

(g.) Column 18, "Reformatory School," contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a reformatory or not. Details as to cases actually received in reformatories are given in Table 46.

(h.) Columns 20 and 24, "Fine," include all cases where a fine is imposed, whether the fine is paid or not. The number of persons committed to prison in default of paying fines is given in Tables 34 and 35.

(i.) Columns 21 and 25, "Recognizances," include all cases where the defendant is ordered to find sureties, whether the sureties are found or not. It must be remembered, however, that the Table applies only to convictions, and that it does not include cases where a person is required to find sureties upon complaint. These cases are included in Table 17.

Note to Table 15.

(k.) This Table corresponds to Table 6.

Note to 16.

(l.) Section (A) of this Table gives the ages of all persons convicted summarily of indictable offences; section (B), however, contains only persons apprehended and convicted; persons convicted on summons have to be excluded on account of the difficulty of ascertaining their ages

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes known to the Police."—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes places within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a committal or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 18 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or committal for trial has preference to the others; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 4 and 12, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 5 and 13, "Tried Summarily and Acquitted," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 6 and 14, "Charge proved and order made without conviction," contain cases dealt with under Sections 1 and 2 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, and cases of children charged with indictable offences committed to industrial schools or to the custody of relatives, &c.

(h) Columns 8 and 16, "Committed for Trial and Detained," include all persons committed to prison or place of detention to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 20.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 14 (b), and, as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (c) and (d) above apply to this Table.

RETURNS FROM THE SEVERAL COUNTIES.

TABLE 25.—Numbers of Habitual Criminals at Large, and TABLE 26.—Numbers of Houses of Bad Character.

The enumeration for the purposes of these Tables was made on the first Tuesday in April, 1911.

Columns 2 to 5, "Number of Habitual Criminals at Large," include persons who are known to engage habitually in crime as their means, or part of their means of livelihood. Persons previously convicted, but not habitual criminals, are not included. Crime is understood in the sense given to it by the definition in Section 20 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871, viz.: any felony, and the following misdemeanours:—Uttering or possessing counterfeit coin, false pretences, conspiracy to defraud, and possession of housebreaking implements, or any offence under Section 58 of the Larceny Act, 1861.

Column 7, "Houses of Receivers of Stolen Goods," includes houses reasonably suspected of being used for the receipt of stolen goods, whether there is an actual conviction against the occupier or not.

Columns 8, 9, and 10 include all houses where thieves and other habitual criminals regularly resort and meet, whether or not the occupiers of the houses are suspected of wilfully harbouring them or of complicity in their crimes.

Notes to Table 32.

(a.) This Table gives the numbers of each class of prisoners received in each prison during the year. In the case of prisoners committed for trial, it is necessary to distinguish between those who were and those who were not previously in prison on remand; otherwise in making up the total the same person would, in many cases, count twice—as a remand prisoner and as a prisoner committed for trial. Similarly, convicted prisoners have to be divided into those who were and those who were not in detention before trial. The figures of the cases which thus appear a second or a third time are printed in italics, columns 3, 5, and 7. The total of criminal prisoners, column 10, is obtained by adding the figures in the other columns, 2, 4, 6, 8, and 9.

The Table gives only the first receptions of prisoners on remand, committed for trial, &c. When prisoners are transferred from one prison to another, they appear only in the return from the prison in which they are first received, not in that from the prison to which they are removed. Since convicts, as a rule, undergo some detention in local prisons before transfer to a convict prison, they appear as receptions only in the local prison returns.

(b.) Column 12, "Debtors," comprises all persons who are treated as debtors in prison, including bankrupts imprisoned to prevent absconding, &c.

Note to Table 33.

SECTION (a).

(c.) This Table gives, in columns 2 to 9, the number of prisoners on remand who are disposed of within the year. It, therefore, includes those in prison on remand on 1st January, but not those on remand and still undisposed of on 31st December. Those who after remand are discharged appear in column 3, those convicted summarily in column 4, those committed for trial in column 5.

(d.) Similar remarks apply to columns 10 to 15. Prisoners waiting trial on 1st January are included; those waiting trial and not disposed of on 31st December are excluded.

SECTION (b).

(e.) This Table shows only the final disposal of each convicted prisoner released or removed during the year. Each case appears only under the prison from which the prisoner is finally discharged or removed. If a prisoner has been removed from one prison to another, his case is included in the figures for the last prison only.

Notes to Table 34.

(f.) This Table includes all cases received under sentence during the year from 1st January to 31st December, whether in prison before conviction or not.

(g.) All prisoners appear in the return from the prison in which they are first received after sentence, and not in the return for any prison to which they may be subsequently removed.

(h.) Column 5 contains only cases where a licence is forfeited on conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for an offence under section 5 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871, as amended by Section 4 of the Penal Servitude Act, 1891. Other cases of forfeiture and all cases of revocation of licence are included in column 21.

Note to Table 35.

(i.) In this Table two sentences passed at the same time and ordered to run consecutively are treated as one sentence equal in length to the two added together. If the sentences differ in character, e.g. a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, and a sentence of imprisonment without hard labour, the entry is made in the column for the severer form of punishment, i.e., in this case, imprisonment with hard labour. In the case of concurrent sentences, the longer only is given.

Notes to Table 37.

(j.) Where the actual date of birth is known, the age is given for the birthday immediately preceding the date of reception in prison. In other cases the age is given as nearly as possible.

TABLE 44.—CLONMEL BORSTAL INSTITUTION.—Admissions and Discharges of Inmates during the year 1911.

NOTE:—Under the provisions of Section 1 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1908, Courts of Assize and Quarter Sessions may sentence persons aged not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-one years who are convicted of offences punishable with penal servitude or imprisonment, to detention for not less than one year nor more than three years, in a Borstal Institution established under section 4 of the Act. Whilst so detained offenders are to receive such industrial training or other instruction and are to be subject to such disciplinary and moral influences as will conduce to their reformation and the prevention of crime.

A Borstal Institution for males has been established, and particulars concerning its working are furnished in the Annual Reports of the General Prisons Board.

49,—INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.—Classification of Admissions.

50.—INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.—Age and State of Instruction on Admission.

51.—INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.—Discharges, Licences, &c.

NOTE to TABLE 46.

This Table does not include re-admissions on expiration or revocation of licence, or on re-capture after escape; nor are admissions on transfer from other Reformatory Schools in Ireland included.

NOTE to TABLE 48

Column 3 does not include children whose sentences expire while they are at large after escape, nor those who, having been recalled to school—under Section 68 of the Children Act, 1908—after the expiration of their sentences, are again discharged.

NOTE to TABLE 49.

The following are the different classes of committals distinguished in columns 4 to 17:—

Column 4.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found begging or receiving alms (whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale, or otherwise), or being in any street, premises or place for the purpose of so begging or receiving alms (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 5.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found wandering and not having any home or settled place of abode, or visible means of subsistence, or found wandering and having no parent or guardian, or a parent or guardian who does not exercise proper guardianship (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 6.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found destitute, either being orphans, or having both parents, or the surviving parent, or in the case of an illegitimate child the mother, undergoing penal servitude or imprisonment (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, secs. 133 (17) and 58 (1)).

Column 7.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, who are under the care of parents or guardians who, by reason of criminal or drunken habits, are unfit to have them under their care (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 8.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, who are the daughters, whether legitimate or illegitimate, of a father who has been convicted of an offence under section four or section five of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1885, in respect of any of his daughters, whether legitimate or illegitimate (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 9.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, frequenting the company of any reputed thief, or of any common or reputed prostitute (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 10.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, lodging or residing in a house or the part of a house used by any prostitute for the purpose of prostitution, or otherwise living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage, or favour their seduction or prostitution (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (1)).

Column 11.—Children, apparently under the age of 12 years, charged before a court of assize or quarter sessions or a petty sessional court with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (2)).

Column 12.—Children, apparently of the age of 12 or 13 years, not previously convicted, charged before a petty sessional court with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment, and who have satisfied the court that, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, they should not be sent to a certified reformatory school, and that their character and antecedents are such that they will not exercise an evil influence over the other children in the industrial school (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (3)).

Column 13.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, whose parents or guardians have proved to a petty sessional court that they are unable to control them, and desire them to be sent to an industrial school, understanding the results which will follow (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (4)).

Column 14.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, inmates of a workhouse or district poor law school, in respect of whom the guardians of the poor law union represent that they are refractory, or that they are children of parents either of whom has been convicted of an offence punishable with penal servitude or imprisonment, and that it is desirable that the children should be sent to a certified industrial school (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (5)).

Column 15.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, sent to an Industrial school on complaint of a School Attendance Committee for the purpose of enforcing an attendance order made under the 4th Section of the Irish Education Act, 1892 (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 133 (20)).

Column 16.—Children ordered to be sent to Day Industrial Schools who wilfully neglect to attend thereat, or wilfully neglect or refuse to conform to the rules of the School (Order in Council of 15th April, 1910, Arts. 8 and 9).

Column 17.—Children ordered to be sent to Industrial Schools for contraventions of bye-laws for the regulation of street trading made under the Employment of Children Act, 1903

JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE YEAR 1911.

PART II.—CIVIL STATISTICS.

REPORT

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, KT.,

&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

The Report on the Judicial Statistics Volume II. (Civil), of Ireland for the year 1911, which I now have the honour of submitting to your Excellency, is compiled from the Tables which commence at page 28 of this volume, and reviews the business of the Courts of Civil Jurisdiction in Ireland for the year 1911.

In Ireland there are two primary divisions of Courts and Offices, namely:—(a) those relating to the Central Administration of Justice, and (b) those relating to the Local Administration of Justice, the latter being grouped into the larger and smaller District Administration of Justice according to the nature and extent of the special jurisdiction. Arrangement of Tables.

I.—CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

Central Administration of Justice.

The Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland includes the High Court of Justice and His Majesty's Court of Appeal.

The Chancery and King's Bench Divisions and the Court of the Irish Land Commission constitute the High Court of Justice in Ireland. The Courts of Exchequer, Common Pleas, the Probate and Matrimonial Courts, the High Court of Admiralty, and the Court of Bankruptcy were merged with the Court of the then Queen's Bench, under the Irish Judicature Acts.

The Central Appellate Jurisdiction includes His Majesty's Court of Appeal (Ireland), the House of Lords in England, and the Privy Council in Ireland. The Court for Crown Cases Reserved may be grouped along with the other Central Jurisdictions, as being closely connected with them. From Table 9, Part I., Criminal Statistics, it appears that during the year 1911 there was no case before the Court for Crown Cases Reserved.

Central Administration of Justice.

Chancery Division.

High Court of Justice—Chancery Division.

Business in Court before Lord Chancellor, Master of the Rolls, Hon. Mr. Justice Barton and the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Ross Tables 1, 2.

The Court business in the Chancery Division during the years 1910 and 1911 is shown in the following summary with the increase or decrease under each head in the latter year.

Registrar's Office. Table 1.

There were 35 Side Bar Orders in the Office of the Registrars of the Chancery Division in 1911, as compared with 38 in the year 1910.

Seven appeals from the County Court equitable jurisdiction up to £500 property and £30 a year in land were filed, in addition to 3 which were pending at the end of the year 1910. Of these three were argued before the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Ross, and three before the Hon. Mr. Justice Barton; of the appeals, three were dismissed with costs, one was struck out, two were varied, and there were four appeals pending at the close of the year 1911. Appeals. Table 2.

The principal proceedings in the Chambers of the Lord Chancellor, the Master of the Rolls, and the Hon. Mr. Justice Barton are shown in the following summary :— Chief Clerk's Returns of Proceedings in Chambers. Table 3.

Disbursements and allowances therein,	£226,305	£246,050	£19,745	-

The above statement shows that there was a decrease in all the proceedings in Chambers in 1911, except an increase of 7 in the Orders for winding up Companies and in the accounts passed, also an increase of 10 in Receivers' and Trustees' Accounts, with an increase of £8,595 in the receipts thereon, and an increase of 28 in Accounts passed other than Receivers' Accounts, with an increase of £46,856 in the receipts, in the year 1911.

The Wards of Court in the Chambers of the Lord Chancellor at the close of the year numbered 908. The new Minor or Infancy Matters in the year were 13 in number, relating to 30 Wards, as compared with 15 new Matters and 37 new Wards in 1910. Minor matters in Chambers.

Central Administration of Justice.

Chancery Division.

Clerk of Records and Writs. Table 4.

A return made by the Clerk of Judgments, Records and Writs shows that there were 382 actions by writ of summons, being 87 under the number in 1910 and 10[illegible] under that for 1909. The proportion of lower scale to higher scale was as 13 to 8[illegible] per cent. The originating summonses (526) were 132 under the summonses filed in 1910. In the Notice Department there were 8,410 original documents or 282 less than the number in 1910 and 1,206 less than the number for 1909; there were 26,73[illegible] copies, being 592 over the number in 1910, and 4,018 less than the number for 1909.

Lord Chancellor's Secretary. Table 5

The Lord Chancellor made 29 Orders on Petitions as to Commissioners for administering oaths for the High Court of Justice, as compared with 18 made in the year 1910. There were four Orders on Petitions as to Notaries, and there were 13 Orders as to other Petitions, including minor Petitions. Warrants for Commissions of the Peace numbered 348, as compared with 325 in 1910 and 257 in 1909. As in the year 1910 there were no warrants as to Coroners.

Secretary at the Rolls. Table 5.

As returned by the Secretary of the Master of the Rolls, the Petitions set down for hearing before the Master of the Rolls (included in Table 5) numbered 15, of which 14 were on the higher scale and one was on the lower scale.

Crown and Hanaper Office. Table 6.

From a return made by the Clerk of the Crown and Hanaper Office, it appears that the proceedings for the year 1911 numbered 6,632, this number is an increase of 4,007 as compared with that for the year 1910.

Land Judge.

Land Judge Registrar's Returns. Table 8.

A table furnished by the Registrar shows that in the year ended 1st November 1911, the gross annual value of Estates sold under the Land Judge was £20,531, and the amount of purchase-money of such Estates was £301,872 cash and £51,154 land stock. In the year 1910 the gross annual value of the Estates sold was £12,457 and the amount of purchase-money for such Estates was £217,637. These sums are the proceeds of the sale of Estates of various classes, that is to say:—Estates which the owner in the matter held in fee-simple or in which he had only a life estate or other terminable interest, the purchase-moneys in such cases only representing the value of the owner's interest. A large proportion of the Estates were, however sold to the occupying tenants, and in these cases the purchase-moneys include not only the value of the owner's interest in the Estate, but the value of the superior interests which, under the Land Purchase Acts, it is necessary to redeem so as to vest the fee-simple in the tenants.

Matters in reference to which proceedings were originated before the Land Judge during the year by Petition or statements of facts numbered 28, being 2 under the number originated in the year ending 1st November, 1910.

Record and Affidavit Office. Table 7.

The Clerk of Records and Writs reports that in the year ended 31st October, 1911, there were 25 petitions filed, being one under the number in 1910, and 14 under that for 1909. Of the total 6 were by owners. The number of affidavits filed was 782, or 16 over that for 1910, and 342 below the number for 1909.

Keeper of Deeds. Table 9. 1

From a return of proceedings made by the Keeper of Deeds it appears that in the year ended 1st November, 1911, there were 17 abstracts of title lodged, or 2 less than the number lodged in the preceding year. The number of deeds or other documents lodged was 831; in 1910 the corresponding number was 762.

King's Bench Division.

King's Bench Division.

Business in King's Bench Division. Tables 10. 11. 12. 13 and 14.

The return of the proceedings of the Plea side in the year 1911 has been supplied by three officials—namely, the Master of the Court, the Registrar, and the Clerk of Judgments, Records and Writs. The Table contains a return of the proceedings at the Plea side of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, and is arranged by quarterly divisions in a single table.

During the year the number of writs of summons issued was 14.157, showing a decline from 14,540 in the year 1910, and from 15,020 in the year 1909. The number of cases which actually came to trial by jury in Dublin in 1911 was 223, being 21 over the number in 1910, which was 77 under the number in 1909. The amount of money recovered at these trials, which was £26,480 in the year 1909, and £14,065 in the year 1910, rose to £21,383 in the period under review.

There were 11,955 affidavits filed, a decrease of 1,664 as compared with the number in the year 1910, which was 1,485 under the number for the year 1909.

A Return (Table 12) made by the Registrar of the proceedings at Chambers and before a single Judge in Court, shows that the number of summonses in 1911 was 168, being 38 under the number in 1910; the number of motions on notice before a single Judge was 1,234, or 254 above that for the year 1910, and 274 above the number for the year 1909, and the exparte motions (including consent orders) granted were 1,202, or 29 over the number in 1910.

Business in King's Bench Division. Tables 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14.

Appeals from the Courts of the Right Honourable the Recorder of the City and Chairman of Quarter Sessions for the County of Dublin (as supplied by the Associate), entered for hearing before a single Judge of the Superior Court in each of the years 1910 and 1911, are shown in the following statement:—

Dublin County Court Appeals heard before a Single Judge of Supreme Court. Table 15.

The preceding summary shows that in the year 1911 there was a decrease of 351 in the number of Superior Court Judgments which were registered, following a decrease of 355 in the year 1910 from the number registered in the year 1909. Central Administration of Justice.

Of the 57 Judgments re-registered, 54 were obtained before the 15th July, 1850, and 3 subsequent to that date.

Lis Pendens registered, which were 1,291 in the year 1909, and rose to 1,595 in the year 1910, declined to 1,580 in the year under notice.

If the number of executions issued on judgments in the King's Bench Division, as given in Table 10 be compared with the number of judgments which were registered in the Registry of Judgments, it appears that the figure representing the executions issued was 4,126, and that representing the judgments registered was 2,510, as compared with 4,604 judgment executions issued, and 2,861 judgments registered, in the year 1910.

A return of the proceedings in the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Office, under the Act of 1891, for the year 1911 in Table 22 (a), shows that there were 193 applications for the first registration, viz:—167 compulsory, and 26 voluntary, and 3,611 cases were lodged by the Irish Land Commission under Section 23 (1) (b), the number of the latter cases in 1910 being 16,471. Local Registration of Title Office Table 22.

Returning to Table 10 it is seen that Bills of Sale are registered and included in the return of the business at the Plea side by the Master of the King's Bench Division. The number of Bills of Sale in the year 1911 was 163, as compared with 202 in 1910 and 256 in 1909. Bills of Sale. Table 10.

Table 23 contains a return, made by the Registrar, from which the amount of business in the Registry of Deeds may be ascertained. This return shows that the number of Deeds registered in the year under notice was 33,799 (inclusive of 462 Judgment Mortgage Affidavits). In the year 1910, the number was 34,002 (inclusive of 543 Judgment Mortgage Affidavits); in the year 1909, it was 34,857 (inclusive of 621 Judgment Mortgage Affidavits); and in the year 1908 the number of deeds registered was 31,074 (inclusive of 563 Judgment Mortgage Affidavits. The number of search dockets issued to the public was 4,179; those lodged for official search were 4,840, of which 2,012 were negative searches, and 2,828 common searches. The Abstract Book was, at the commencement of the year, entered up to the 17th December, 1910, and at the end of the year 1911 it was entered up to the 15th December, at the end of the year 1911 the Land Index was entered up to the 14th December and it was checked to the 12th December. The Transcription of Memorials was completed in the year 1910 to the 11th of November, and in the year 1911 to the 5th November. In the year 1910 the number of negative searches lodged but not made was 101; and the number of Common Searches lodged but not made was 34; in the year 1911 these numbers were 84 and 78 respectively. Registry Deeds. Table 23.

Negative searches made and ready for delivery but not taken out in 1911 amounted to 325, and the common searches to 65.

Taxation of Costs.

The return for the year 1911 made by the Masters of the Consolidated Taxing Office shows that the amount of costs claimed was £259,664. The corresponding amount for 1910 was £261,441, which shows a decrease of £1,777 in 1911 as compared with the year 1910. The amount allowed in 1911 was £225,789, as compared with £224,647 in 1910, being an increase of £1,142. Taxation of Costs. Table 24.

By the Rules of the Supreme Court (Ireland), 1899, dated 5th December, 1899, Order 91, Rule 112, it is provided that all Bills of Costs in any matter of Bankruptcy Arrangement or Insolvency shall be taxed by one of the Taxing Masters of the High Court; subject, however, to the provisions of Section 51 of the 20 & 21 Vic., cap. 60.

Administration of Property.

Receivers under Land Judge. Table 25.

The Land Judge appointed Receivers in 23 cases in the year under notice as compared with 21 in 1910, 35 in the preceding year, 46 in the year 1908, 26 in the year 1907, 26 in the year 1906, 22 in the year 1905, 30 in 1904, 33 in 1903, 43 in 1902, and 45 in 1901. In 1910 the total number of Receivers under the Land Judge was 62 as compared with the number in the period under notice, namely, 611.

A return made by the Examiner shows the Receivers' and Guardians' Accounts passed in the Receivers' Office of Land Judge (Table 25 (2)). From this it appears that the total number of accounts passed was 193, including 28 in Minor matters and 165 in other actions and suits, the rentals of these sets of accounts being £25,94 and £67,997 respectively.

There were 10 lettings for 7 years pending the Cause, and 266 for shorter periods all the lettings were by proposal without biddings.

The number of ejectments executed, which in the year 1907 was 1,259, and 1908 1,352, fell to 1,274 in 1909, and again in 1910 to 1,242, again furth declined to 1,017 in the period under notice.

The High Court ejectments executed were 221, being 16 over the number f the year 1910, 36 below that for the year 1909, and four above the number f 1908.

County Court Ejectment Suits (Table 51) and Executions (Table 55) compared.

As returned by Clerks of the Peace and Registrars of Recorders during t decennial period 1902-1911, it appears that the County Court ejectment sui entered and lodged, which in 1902 were 6,998, fell in 1903 to 6,320, rose to 6,7 in 1904, fell to 6,419 in 1905, again fell to 6,003 in 1906, declined in the year 19 to 5,912, rose in the year 1908 to 5,087, declined to 5,052 in the year 190 further declined in the year 1910 to 4,217, and again in 1911 to 3,575.

County Court ejectments of all classes for Ireland numbered 796, as compared th 1,037 for the year 1910. The number for each of the years 1901 to 1909 is:— the year 1901, 1,293; 1902, 1,254; 1903, 1,186; 1904, 1,332; 1905, 1,047; 1906, 10; 1907, 1,023; 1908, 1,135, and for 1909, 1,017.

Claims for Compensation for Malicious Injuries under Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898. Table 54.

Table 54 gives information with regard to the nature and amount of claim, and amount of compensation granted for Malicious Injuries under Section 5 of Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898. From this it appears that for the ar 1911 there were 1,456 claims for Malicious Injuries, viz., two for Malicious jury to the Person and 1,454 to Property (including 33 cases pending at the ginning of the year). In the year 1910 there were 852 claims, and in the year 09 the claims numbered 1,028.

The two claims for Malicious Injury to the person for hearing were in the ovince of Leinster.

The claims for Malicious Injuries to Property were distributed as follows:— 1 in Leinster, 344 in Munster, 613 in Ulster, and 156 in Connaught.

The number of Decrees, and the number of Dismisses, in the cases which were ard during the year 1911, are shown in the following tabular statement:—

	Decrees.			Dismisses.
	Person.	Property.	Total.	Person.	Property.	Total.
Leinster, . .	1	239	240	–	60	60
Munster, . .	–	213	213	–	74	74
Ulster, . .	–	452	452	–	91	91
Connaught, . .	–	108	108	–	31	31
Total . .	1	1012	1013	–	256	256

The above summary shows that 1,013 Decrees were obtained during the year 11, and that 256 claims were dismissed. In the year 1910 the Decrees obtained mbered 568, and the Claims dismissed, 191.

Ninety-three Claims were disposed of in the year 1911, otherwise than by Decree Dismiss, and 94 were pending at the close of the year. The corresponding mbers in the year 1910 were 60 cases so disposed of and 33 pending.

The total amount claimed in cases in which Decrees were made and the mount of compensation granted by the County Court is given in the following mmary:—

	Injuries to Person.		Injuries to Property.
	Claimed.	Granted.	Claimed.	Granted.
	£	£	£	£
Leinster, . . .	500	52	9,887	5,059
Munster, . . .	–	–	9,458	5,607

Connaught, . . .	–	–	4,743	1,991
Total, . . .	500	52	33,691	18,013

The foregoing tabular statement shows that for the year 1911 in one case of licious Injury to the Person in which a Decree was made, out of a total of 00 claimed, the grant of compensation amounted to £52, and in cases of licious Injuries to Property in which Decrees were made, out of a total of 3,691 claimed, the grants amounted to £18,013, as against a total of £17,537 imed in the year 1910 and £9,549 granted.

The amounts claimed in the cases of Injury to Property which were dismissed, were, in Leinster, £2,557; Munster, £7,118; Ulster, £4584; and Connaught, £4,353, making a total for Ireland of £18,612.

The results of the proceedings on Circuit as to Appeals from County Court Judges and Recorders in respect of claims for Malicious Injury under Section of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, in the year 1911 may be seen Table 49 (pages 66-9), and are referred to on page 21.

Eviction Notices. Table 61.

The number of Eviction Notices filed during the year 1911, under Section of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1887, was 710, being 399 under the numb (1,109) in the year 1910. The corresponding figures for the years 1904-1909 a as follows:—

1904, . . .	2,414	1906, . .	2,191	1908, . .	1,591
1905, . .	2,221	1907, . .	1,602	1909, . .	1,471

Of the 710 notices in 1911, 19 were filed in the King's Bench Division, a 691 in County Courts.

Civil Bill Decrees executed. Table 55.

The number of Civil Bill Decrees and Dismisses returned as executed in t year 1911 was 17,623. Of this figure 14,059 were executed by Sheriffs and 3,5 by Special Bailiffs; in the year 1910 the number was 20,581, of which 16,2 were executed by Sheriffs and 4,365 by Special Bailiffs; in the year 1909 t number was 23,096, of which 17,937 were executed by Sheriffs, and 5,159 Special Bailiffs; in the year 1908 the number was 22,933, of which 17,994 we executed by Sheriffs, and 4,939 by Special Bailiffs; and in the year 1907 t number was 21,157, of which 16,704 were executed by Sheriffs and 4,453 Special Bailiffs.

Warrants against Cottier Tenants and Weekly Tenants. Table 58.

From returns furnished by the Clerks of Petty Sessions, it appears th warrants to Special Bailiffs under Act 23 & 24 Vic., c. 154 (summary recove of possession of tenements), numbered 685 in 1911, having been 741 in 191 The warrants to Special Bailiffs under 14 & 15 Vic., cap. 92, s. 15 (summa recovery of possession of tenements, overholding in towns), numbered 13,9 being an increase of 880 as compared with the number in 1910, which was 6,2 under that for the year 1909.

Ejectments executed for non-payment of rent and others in 1910 and 1911, compared. Table 55.

The following summary shows the Returns of Sheriffs as to execution ejectments, classed so as to distinguish the ejectments for non-payment of re from other ejectments, for the years 1910 and 1911:—

Local Administration of Justice—Larger Districts.

County Courts.

From the summary at foot of page 24, it appears that there were six cases for disposal in the year 1911, being a decrease of one as compared with the year 1910, and equal to the number in 1909.

There were decrees in three of the cases entered, lodged or pending in 1911; one was dismissed, and two cases were pending at the end of the year 1911.

Decrees.

Under the Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Act, 1870, three decrees were made. The total amount claimed was £930, and the total amount decreed without deducting allowances for set-off to Landlord for dilapidation, rent, &c., was £543. The cases in which decrees were made in the year 1911 consisted of one in the Province of Leinster, and two in Connaught.

Proceedings of Sheriffs.

Proceedings of Sheriffs.

Information regarding the proceedings of Sheriffs during their year of office, 1910-11, is given in Tables 55 and 57, including those having relation to Jurors summoned and those already referred to on pages 22 and 24.

Jurors.

Revision of Jurors' Lists and correction of Jurors. Books. Table 56

As furnished by Clerks of Unions the Lists contained in the year 1911 the names of 166,242 Jurors for the whole of Ireland. Of these 66,435, or 40·0 per cent., were struck off; and 30 persons added by the Revision Court, all being in the City of Dublin.

Besides those Jurors who were struck off by the Revision Court there were 258 Jurors exempted by Clerks of the Peace and one Juror was struck off Book by a Judge. This gives the total number of Jurors on the corrected General Jurors' Books for 1912 (when handed to the Sheriffs) in all Ireland as 99,578, of whom 58,966 were on rated qualification, 36,516 were £10 free-holders (in the preceding year the number was 34,221), 3,504 were £20 Leaseholders, 558 Directors or Managers of Public Companies, and 34 were Harbour Commissioners.

It appears from the Special Jurors Lists prepared in 1911 that of 14,970 persons 4,723 were struck off by Revision Court, 117 were exempted by the Clerks of the Peace, and 177 persons were added by Revision Court, so that there was a net reduction of 4,663 or 31.1 per cent. When handed to the Sheriffs the books showed 10,307 Special Jurors.

Jurors summoned. Table 57.

From Returns made by the Clerks of the Peace, information regarding the proceedings of Sheriffs in summoning Jurors is gathered and contained in Table 57, from which it appears that the total number of Jurors summoned in the year numbered 44,141, as compared with 42,054 in 1910. Of the number for 1911, 4,448 were Grand Jurors* for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 8,449 were Grand Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 860* were Special Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 13,423 were Petit and Common Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 15,321 were Petit Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 1,538 were Jurors in Civil Bill cases before County Court Judges or Recorders; and there were 102 Jurors for other purposes summoned.

Appeals from Magistrates at Quarter Sessions. Table 59.

The following summary shows the number of Appeals from Magistrates at Quarter Sessions for the year 1911, compared with the number for 1910:—

Appeals at Quarter Sessions.	1910.	1911.	Increase, 1911.	Decrease, 1911.
Appeals from Magistrates :—

Total, ...	384	401	17	—

* Special Jurors are included with Grand Jurors in the case of Dublin County and Dublin City.

Local Administration of Justice.

The foregoing statement shows that the number of appeals from Magistrates heard at Quarter Sessions was 17 more than the number in 1910, the number for which year was 7 below that for 1909. Of the appeals heard and decided in Court during 1911, in 155 cases the previous decisions were affirmed, in 117 reversed, in 66 varied, and in 63 "otherwise disposed of" (including cases in which there was no appearance).

Spirit Licences.

Spirit Licences. Table 59.

Table 59 also supplies information regarding the number of licences granted at Quarter Sessions and the Annual Licensing Sessions. In the year under notice the total number was 1,962. Of this total, 189 were granted or confirmed on original application at Annual Licensing Sessions, 719 were granted at other Quarter Sessions, and 1,054 were granted or confirmed on application for transfer at the Annual Licensing Sessions; the corresponding figures in the year 1910 were 157, 767, and 1,130 respectively.

Local Charter Courts.

Local Charter Courts.

Table 60.

From Returns made by the Registrars of the Local Charter Courts details are given of proceedings in the respective Courts of Conscience (see note * to Table 60). These Courts are designated as follows:—Clonmel Court of Conscience, Drogheda Court of Conscience, Dublin Lord Mayor's Court (see note (*) Table 60), Dublin Court of Conscience, Kilkenny Court of Conscience, Limerick Court of Conscience, Londonderry Court of Conscience, and Wexford Court of Conscience. The principal particulars may be summarised as follows:—Number of summonses issued, 2,779, being 207 under the number for the year 1910, and 428 below that for 1909; causes heard, 2,510; decisions for plaintiff, 2,158; for defendant, 79; otherwise disposed of, 273.

Petty Sessions Courts.

Petty Sessions Courts.

Returns furnished by Clerks of Petty Sessions giving the Civil proceedings at the Courts of Petty Sessions are shown in Table 58 in the Appendix. The total summonses issued were 107,280, being 3,284 below the number for the preceding year.

Table 58. Civil proceedings.

The Civil cases, other than proceedings against cottier and weekly tenants, at Petty Sessions were disposed of as follows:—

Securities to credit expressed in Foreign Currency, Chancery Division,	Dollars, Rupees, Yen,	16,750 7,000 3,000	In name of the Accountant-General in Foreign Currency, Chancery Division,	Dollars, Rupees, Yen	16,750 7,000 3,000

* This deficiency consists of Cash and New Consols appropriated out of the Funds in Court, under the authority of various Acts of Parliament, and of a loss (of £7,905 16s. 11d.) arising from a deficiency in the accounts of a former Master of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, provided for by Act 23 & 24 Geo. III., c. 22 (1783), and 30 Geo. III., c. 41 (1790). The Consolidated Fund is liable for the amount of the deficiency, in the event of the funds in Court being at any time insufficient to meet payments to suitors.

† This deficiency, which is uncovered by any formal liability of the Consolidated Fund, is the result of a double payment of £7 2s. 3d. inadvertently made in 1867 by a former Master of the King's Bench Division, and an overpayment of one shilling in 1877, and one penny suspense, Chancery Division.

of the Receipts and Payments of the Accountant-General of the Supreme Court Court, including therein the Funds to the credit of Lunacy Accounts, in the made under the provisions of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland)

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE T. M'KINNON WOOD, M.P.,

HIS MAJESTY'S SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND.

DEPARTMENT OF PRISONS AND JUDICIAL STATISTICS,
11 RUTLAND SQUARE,
EDINBURGH, 8th November 1912.

SIR,

We have the honour to submit the Report on the Judicial Statistics of Scotland for the year 1911, the arrangement of which is similar to that of previous years.

It is gratifying to have to report a general decrease in serious Crime, but we regret that there is a marked increase in the number of Assaults by Husbands on Wives, and of Minor Crimes and Offences.

We think it right to direct attention to the large number of persons committed to prison in Scotland in default of payment of fines, viz. 35,811 out of a total of 83,787 sentenced to pay fines. Moreover, the Probation of Offenders Act 1907 was made use of in only 3114 instances, including cases in Juvenile Courts. This is a decrease on the figure of the previous year, and shews that the Act is little used in Scotland (see p. 12). As there is good reason to believe that a properly worked probation system sensibly reduces the necessity for sentences of imprisonment, we venture to suggest that it is very desirable that inquiry should be made into the administration of this Act in Scotland.

We have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your very obedient Servants,

W. G. SCOTT, Chairman.
T. D. ROBERTSON.
CHRISTOPHER N. JOHNSTON.
W. S. HALDANE.

L. A. VAN DEN BERGH,
Superintendent.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CRIMINAL STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR 1911.

The total number of persons disposed of in Criminal Courts for Crimes and Offences in the year 1911 was 155,537, an increase of 3·5 per cent. on the total number for the previous year, which was 150,330. It is noticeable, however, that the total for 1911 is almost identical with that for the year 1909, which was 155,404, and considerably below the average for the period 1898 to 1908, viz. 174,809.

Compared with the year 1910, the increase, viz. 5207 persons, is largely due to the number proceeded against for Breach of Peace and Drunkenness. It is doubtless owing to the increased industrial prosperity providing earnings to be misspent in the purchase of intoxicating liquors by a section of the population. If we compare the number of persons classified under Classes I. to VI. as representing more serious crime for the two years, 1911 shews 24,732 as against 25,207 in 1910, a decrease of nearly 2 per cent. In some cases this fall in number is most gratifying, i.e. in House-breaking where there is a decrease of 12 per cent., in Theft where the decrease is 5 per cent., and in Falsehood, Fraud, and Wilful Imposition, where it amounts to 15 per cent. On the other hand, increases are noticed in Malicious Mischief, which is usually of a comparatively trifling nature amounting to 6 per cent., and in Assaults by Husbands on Wives, a crime influenced no doubt by drink, where the increase reaches nearly 14 per cent.

The following eight diagrams illustrate the variations in the number of persons proceeded against during the past fifteen years under the different classes of crime :—

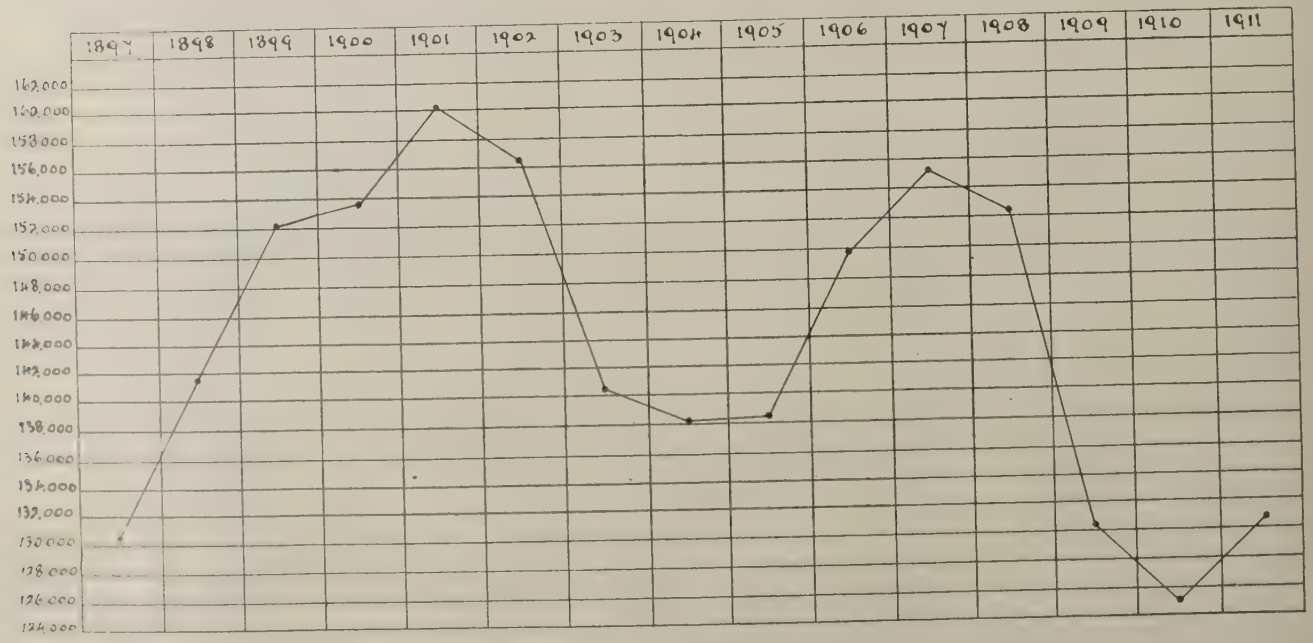
Rise shewn from year 1910 is owing to revised classification.

DIAGRAM VIII.

Miscellaneous offences, including drunkenness, disorder, and Police Act offences, etc., etc., etc. (year 1911, 130,805).



Over two-thirds of the persons appearing under Miscellaneous Offences and included in Diagram VIII., were dealt with for Drunkenness and Breach of the Peace, and the following Table has been made out shewing the numbers proceeded against for these offences in each of the years from 1897–1911.

It will be seen that the decrease in numbers, which commenced in 1908, was strongly marked in 1909, and continued in 1910, has given place to an increase which amounts to 10 per cent. on the figure for the year 1910, but this is hardly sufficient to cause apprehension of a return to the high level of the period 1897–1908.

CONVICTIONS.

A table is given below shewing the disposal of persons convicted of the various crimes and offences in the ten years ended 1911 for the purpose of making comparisons during this period.

No person suffered the extreme penalty of the law during the year 1911. Two persons are given as sentenced to Death, but the sentence passed upon one, a male, was commuted to Penal Servitude for life, and that passed upon the other, a female, to twelve years Penal Servitude.

The number sentenced to Penal Servitude was 122 as against 143 so sentenced in 1910. The number is still high in comparison with the total number proceeded against, but the proportion is smaller than that of the year 1910. It is identical with that for the year 1909. The total number of males sentenced to Penal Servitude was 118, and females 4. Of these, 93 males and 2 females, i.e. 80 per cent. of the whole, were regarded and registered in Scotland or England as habitual criminals.

The Prevention of Crime Act 1908 provides that where a person is convicted on indictment of a crime and subsequently admits that he is or is found by the jury to be a habitual criminal, and the Court passes a sentence of Penal Servitude, the Court has power to impose a further sentence of detention not exceeding ten nor less than five years to be served on the determination of the sentence of Penal Servitude, and this further sentence is designated Preventive Detention. It is noticeable that the Courts added a sentence of Preventive Detention to that of Penal Servitude in only 20 cases in 1911 as against 41 in the year 1910, and of these 17 were ordered to be detained for the minimum period of five years, and 3 for seven years.

The number of persons dealt with under the Probation of Offenders Act 1907, viz. 3114 in all, shews a decrease of 129 on the number for the year 1910. This total is very small when compared with the number admonished, viz. 21,153, and those fined, viz. 83,787. Seeing that of the total number of persons fined, 35,531 or over 40 per cent. went to prison in default of payment, it would appear that a properly devised system of probation under which these persons could have been allowed time to pay their fines or to pay them by instalments might have led to the result of payment being made by a sensible proportion who wished to pay but were at the moment unable to do so. It would have kept these persons out of prison, thereby avoiding the cost of their conveyance and maintenance, and would have assisted them to carry out the original intention of the sentence, which was intrinsically one of fine, not of imprisonment.

The number of persons with respect to whom Probation Orders were made in terms of sec. 2 of the Probation of Offenders Act 1907 was 1577, and the number of these who appeared for sentence during the year after release on Probation Order was 186, of whom 129 were discharged or otherwise disposed of, 6 were sent to Industrial or Reformatory Schools, 30 were sentenced to be detained in prison or in place of detention, and 21 were dealt with for fresh offences.

During the year 1911 there were received into Scottish Prisons 212 convicted Aliens (207 males and 5 females), and of these only 20 (19 males and 1 female) were recommended by Courts for expulsion from the United Kingdom in terms of the Aliens Act 1905.

The number of persons proceeded against after full committal in the year 1911 was 1401 as against 1488 in the year 1910. The average for the five years ended 1908 was 2622. The decrease in number is no doubt due in a measure to the influence of the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Act 1908, under which the Sheriff has power to sentence on summary conviction in certain cases to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, which meets the requirements of numerous cases formerly dealt with on indictment.

The total number of persons committed to prison during the year was 46,594 as against 46,443 in 1910. The number received after conviction was 44,723 as compared with 44,583 in the previous year. The number of persons convicted and received into prison for the first time was 8750, being nearly 20 per cent. of the whole, exactly the proportion of the previous year.

The number of persons received into prison under sentence of imprisonment was 8694, and the number received in default of payment of fines was 35,811. These figures stand in the ratio of 1 to 4.

In very many cases of those undergoing imprisonment in default of payment of fines, it is obvious from the prisoners' circumstances that by no possibility could they have paid the fines imposed, and that the Magistrate in passing sentence really had in view the alternative of imprisonment, and the length of time for which he thought the convicted person should be in prison.

A fine so small as to be within the means of the majority of prisoners would, under the scale laid down in the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Act 1908, involve so short an alternative term of imprisonment as to be altogether inadequate as a deterrent, for example: In order to give a sentence of even fourteen days the fine must exceed £1, which is quite beyond the means of a poorly paid wage-earner. This matter, in the opinion of the Commissioners, deserves serious attention.

Of the persons sentenced in Summary Courts we find that 83,729 were sentenced in 1911 to pay fines as compared with 79,203 in the year 1910. In 1911, 46,581 paid before imprisonment, or 55·6 per cent. of the whole as compared with 54 per cent. who paid in 1910, a slight improvement, but leaving much to be desired.

The fines paid and pledges forfeited in the Summary Courts amounted to £44,552 as against £40,693 in the year 1910.

A new Table, No. XXIX., is furnished, shewing the receptions into Polmont Institution which has been provided under the Prevention of Crime Act 1908, Part I., for the detention of Borstal cases. The Institution was only opened on 18th December 1911, and the total number received before the end of the year was 19. Of these 8 were committed under section 1 of the Act, and 11 were transferred from prisons under section 3. There was only 1 female sentenced to Borstal treatment in 1911.

The number of persons dealt with in Juvenile Courts as established by the Children Act 1908 was 10,761 as against 10,576 in the previous year. The principal offences with which they were charged were Theft, 3417; Malicious Mischief, 2322; Police Act Offences, 1806; Breach of the Peace, 788; Obstructions and Nuisances under Road Acts, 734; and Tramway Act Offences 711.

The following figures have been obtained in regard to Places of Detention provided by Police Authorities under section 108 of the Children Act 1908, as substitutes for Police Stations and Prisons for the confinement of children and young persons in certain cases as indicated in the Act (section 94). The total number of Juveniles received into places provided by the Counties was 73, of whom 36 were in the County of Lanark, 14 in the County of Stirling, 9 in the County of Elgin, and 7 in Ayrshire.

The total number of juveniles received into places provided by Burghs was 407, of whom 323 were received in Glasgow, 43 in Edinburgh, 15 in Dundee, 8 in Galashiels, and 6 in Partick. Of these, 120 were received upon conviction, of whom 111 were received in default of payment of fines imposed. In the year 1910 the number received in Counties was 36, and in Burghs 417.

The total number of youthful offenders committed to Reformatory Schools in the year 1911 was 199, viz. 174 males and 25 females. The numbers in 1910 were 159 males, 23 females. The bulk of these were committed for Theft, viz. 144, with 39 for Theft by Housebreaking.

The Industrial Schools shew an increase in admissions during the year as compared with the year 1910, thus:—

1911.	Boys, 621	Girls, 294 . . .	Total 915
1910.	„ 509	„ 279 . . .	„ 788

The increase is spread over the whole of Scotland. More than half the cases were "found wandering, etc.," about one-fifth of the whole were charged with punishable offences, and about one-tenth were committed on account of their parents or guardians being of Criminal or Drunken habits.

The number admitted to Day Industrial Schools in 1911 was 447 boys, 263 girls, making a total of 710 as compared with 737 in the previous year.

The number of persons received into Certified Inebriate Reformatories during the year was 26, viz. 13 on indictment and 13 from Summary Courts, as compared with 13 in the year 1910. The Reformatories of Girgenti and Hairmyres have been closed, and there were no receptions from Courts during the year at the Scottish Labour Colony, Dumfries. At Greenock Reformatory there were 14 females received; at Seabank, Aberdeen, 5 females. At the State Inebriate Reformatory, Perth, 6 females and 1 male were received.

Having regard to the large number of persons dealt with for Drunkenness, many of whom are habitual offenders, it would appear that the powers conferred by the Inebriates Acts might be exercised to a much larger extent with great advantage, as by the segregation of some of these persons a source of pollution to their fellows would be stopped, and the number of persons reported for these offences sensibly reduced.

The number of Criminal Lunatics received into the Criminal Lunatic Department during the year was 10, viz. 8 males and 2 females. Of these, 2 males were received from Courts; the remaining 6 males and 2 females were transferred from prisons during the year, they having been certified insane. The total number of Criminal Lunatics in detention at the end of the year was 55, viz. 47 males and 8 females, of whom 22 males and 4 females, i.e. nearly one half, had been charged with murder.

The Prerogative of Mercy was exercised in the cases of 36 males and 9 females, of whom 7 males and 3 females were released on medical grounds.

In addition to these, 20 males and 15 females were removed from prisons under Sheriff's warrant in terms of Section 72 of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1860, on the ground that their physical condition was such that their continued detention would have been a source of danger either to themselves or to others.

The following lists shew the relative number per 10,000 of the population of persons proceeded against for Drunkenness and Disorder in the various Counties and Burghs for purposes of local comparison.

Notes to General Returns of Crimes and Offences, &c. (Tables I. to III.).

Table I., &c.

(a.) Where similar particulars are shown under the classifications of Crimes and Offences and Counties and Burghs, the Tables giving the figures under the classification of Crimes and Offences are printed first, Counties and Burghs afterwards.

(b.) Column 1.—The titles of crimes and offences are condensed. The fuller titles, and the crimes and offences comprised under each sub-head, will be found on pages 21 to 30. This note also applies to the respective columns in Tables III., IV., V., VI., IX., X., XI., and XII.

(c.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes and Offences made known to Police in 1911."—This column includes all crimes and offences made known to the police during the year, whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension took place within the year or not. Offences reported to the police, and subsequently discovered not to have occurred (such as the loss of personal property afterwards found to have been mislaid), are not included.

(d.) If there is a committal or conviction within the year, the table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the petition or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(e.) In columns 4 to 26 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes and offences. Where, therefore, any person is charged at the same time with several offences, one of these has to be selected for tabulation. The rule followed is to select that offence for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage. If there were several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence appears in the tables.

(f.) All the tables are for the calendar year ending 31st December, and include only persons finally disposed of within the year. Where a case is pending at the end of the year (e.g. tried but sentence postponed) it is reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(g.) Column 5 includes all cases disposed of without committal "till liberated in due course of law." Cases reported for the instructions of Crown Counsel are therefore strictly excluded from this column. They appear in column 16, which, on the other hand, is limited to cases where a committal "till liberated in due course of law" has taken place.

(h.) In column 8 are included cases in which, although the prisoner may not have been tried, a simple liberation did not follow, such as naval and military prisoners remitted to their ships or regiments for trial, and juveniles who, having absconded from reformatory or industrial schools and been arrested by the police, were sent back to school without further punishment.

(i.) Columns 15 and 22 include sentences to detention in a reformatory school, sentences to find caution, cases where only an admonition followed on conviction, and column 22 cases dealt with on indictment under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907.

(j.) Column 20 contains all cases where, after full committal, the accused was not brought up for trial.

(k.) Column 26 includes all cases called for trial where the accused was found insane, either on trial or at the time of committing the offence.

Table II.

(l.) The burghs contained in this Table are those in which Police Courts are held either under the Burgh Police Act, 1892, or under local Police Acts. This note also applies to Tables VI., VII., and VIII.

(m.) Notes (c) to (k) above apply to this Table. Where particular columns are referred to, it will be noticed that the numbering is somewhat different in this Table.

Table III.

(n.) Note (e) above applies to this Table. The figures here are the total apprehensions and citations in each month of the year, without reference to the number disposed of in each month.

Notes to Tables of Summary Proceedings (Tables IV. to XII.).

Table IV.

(a.) Where similar particulars are shown under the classifications of Crimes and Offences and Counties and Burghs, the Tables giving the figures under the classification of Crimes and Offences are printed first, Counties and Burghs afterwards.

(b.) Tables IV., VI., and VII. include cases disposed of without being brought before a Court, such as liberations by the police on account of insufficient evidence, &c.

(c.) The list of crimes and offences is similar to that in Table I. (see note (b) on page 30). This applies also to Tables V., VI., IX., X., XI., and XII.

(d.) The Table shows the number of persons proceeded against, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in the foregoing tables (see note (e) page 30).

(e.) As in Table I., the titles of the offences are condensed. For the offences under each head see pages 21 to 30.

(f.) The Tables are for the calendar year ending 31st December, and include only persons finally disposed of within the year. Cases not entirely disposed of at the end of the year are held over for the following year's tables.

(g.) From Tables IV. to X. are excluded cases where the accused has been fully committed till liberated in due course of law although afterwards ordered by Crown Counsel to be disposed of by the Sheriff summarily. Such cases are included in Part III. of these statistics.

(h.) Column 2.—The numbers here agree with those of column 5 of Table I.

(i.) Columns 11, 12 and 13 include persons dealt with under the Probation of Offenders Act 1907.

(j.) Column 13 includes persons placed under a bond with conditions as to supervision.

(k.) Column 14 includes only those committals to industrial schools where an offence is charged—i.e. committals under section 58 (2) and (3) of the Children Act, 1908. Committals to industrial schools, where the proceedings are not criminal, appear in Table XXXIV.

(l.) Column 16 does not include terms of imprisonment in default of paying fines or of finding sureties.

(m.) Column 18 includes all cases where a fine is imposed, whether it is paid or not. The number of persons committed to prison in default of paying fines is given in Table XXI.

(n.) Column 19 contains cases of persons ordered to be detained in Inebriate Reformatories under the Inebriates' Acts, 1879 to 1898, and Licensing (Scotland) Act, 1903.

(o.) Column 20 contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a Reformatory or not. Details as to cases actually received into Reformatories are given in Table XXX.

(p.) Column 22 includes all cases where the accused is ordered to find caution, whether with or without sureties.

(q.) Columns 25 to 30 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence. Thus, if a person convicted of drunkenness is sentenced to be imprisoned and to be detained in a certified inebriate reformatory, the imprisonment appears in column 16, the inebriate reformatory detention in column 25.

(r.) Column 31 contains those cases in column 15 in which the accused was convicted in absence.

Table V.

(s.) Table V. gives the particulars of the sentences of imprisonment and fines imposed—shown in Table IV., cols. 16 and 18.

(t.) Column 22 includes all fines paid within the year, whether imposed within the year or in a previous year.

(u.) Column 23 contains the amount of all pledges forfeited during the year, whether received within the year or not.

(v.) Column 27 gives the number of persons who were dealt with by Juvenile Courts.

Table VI.

(w.) The burghs contained in this Table are those in which Police Courts are held, either under the Burgh Police Act, 1892, or under local Police Acts.

Table VII.

(x.) The totals of Table VII. correspond with those of Table IV., but Table VII. gives the information under counties and burghs, Table IV. under crimes and offences.

Table VIII.

(y.) Table VIII. gives the particulars of sentences of imprisonment, and of fines imposed on persons—shown in Table VII., cols. 17 and 19.

Table IX.

(z.) Children who have not completed their twelfth year are regarded as under 12, and are entered in column 3. Column 4 includes all persons who have completed 12 years, but not 14 years, and similarly with the other columns.

Table XI.

Table XI. (aa.) gives particulars of the disposal of persons who appeared for sentence after release on Probation Order, Probation of Offenders Act, 1907.

PART II.

SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS.

PERSONS DEALT WITH SUMMARILY.

SHERIFF COURTS (WITHOUT FULL COMMITTAL), JUSTICE OF PEACE COURTS AND BURGH POLICE COURTS.

PART III.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER FULL COMMITTAL.

PERSONS COMMITTED TILL LIBERATED IN DUE COURSE OF LAW.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICIARY

AND

SHERIFF COURTS (AFTER FULL COMMITTAL).

(TABLES XIII. to XIX.)

Notes to Tables of Proceedings after Full Committal (Tables XIII. to XIX.).

Table XIII.

(a.) From the list of crimes and offences in column 1, the detailed offences in Class VII. in Parts I. and II. are excluded, as these are chiefly disposed of before Summary Courts.

(b.) In this Table the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in the preceding Tables—the charge resulting in conviction has preference to the others; subject to this, the most serious charge is selected. If there are two or more convictions, that for which the heaviest sentence is inflicted is regarded as the most serious. This also applies to Tables XIV. to XIX.

(c.) As in the preceding Tables, Tables XIII. to XIX. include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's Tables.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted of another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of culpable homicide) the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) In Tables XIII. to XIX. are included cases where the accused has been fully committed till liberated in due course of law, although afterwards ordered by Crown Counsel to be disposed of by the Sheriff summarily. Such cases are therefore excluded from Part II. of these statistics.

(f.) Column 2.—The numbers here correspond with those in column 16 of Table I.

(g.) Column 10 does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(h.) Column 13 includes all cases where payment of a fine is imposed as the sentence or part of the sentence, whether the fine is actually paid or not.

(i.) Column 14 includes cases ordered to be detained in a State Inebriate Reformatory under the Inebriates Acts, 1879–1898.

(j.) Column 17 includes cases where caution is required, whether with or without sureties, and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(k.) Columns 18 and 19 include persons released under Probation of Offenders Act 1907: column 18 on bond promising good behaviour, and column 19 on bond with conditions as to supervision.

(l.) Columns 26 to 30 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence. Thus, if a person convicted of theft is sentenced to be imprisoned and ordered to find caution, the imprisonment appears in column 10, the caution in column 29.

Table XIV.

(m.) Table XIV. gives the particulars of the sentences to penal servitude and imprisonment shown in Table XIII. cols. 9 and 10.

Table XV.

(n.) The period is calculated in all cases from the date on which the accused is committed till liberated in due course of law. In the case of persons who plead guilty at a pleading diet, the period ends on that day; where a plea of guilty is not tendered at a pleading diet, the period ends on the day of trial. Portions of a week are ignored.

Table XVI.

(o.) The counties in this Table, as regards areas and boundaries, are the geographical counties, including Burghs and Police Burghs, as well as the landward areas administered by the County Councils, except in the cases of Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee, and Aberdeen, which, being counties of cities, are shown separately. The numbers relative to these four cities are excluded from the counties in which they are geographically situated.

Table XVII.

(p.) Although a case may have been disposed of beyond the county in which the offence was committed, the entry is retained against that county.

(q.) The headings of columns 2 to 25, inclusive, are similar to the headings of columns 2 to 25 of Table XIII.

(r.) Where a prisoner has pleaded guilty in a Sheriff Court, and is remitted (under section 31 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1887) to the High Court of Justiciary for sentence, the case does not appear in the Sheriff Court figures, but in the statistics of the High Court.

Table XVIII.

(s.) Children who have not completed their twelfth year are regarded as under 12, and are entered in column 3. Column 4 includes all persons who have completed 12 years, but have not completed 14 years, and similarly with the other columns.

Notes to Prison Tables (Tables XX. to XXVIII.).

Table XX.

(a.) This Table deals with the total number of prisoners received into and released or removed from prisons in 1911. They appear according to the prisons of last detention, i.e. the prisons from which they were released or removed, or in which they were confined at 31st December 1911.

(b.) Columns 6 and 29, "Civil Prisoners," include prisoners,—

1. For debts and taxes due to the Crown, not being fines or penalties inflicted on conviction of offences, and for rates and assessments lawfully imposed or to be imposed;
2. On meditatione fugæ warrants;
3. Ad factum præstandum;
4. Under the Employers and Workmen Act, 1875; and
5. Until they find caution under Writs of Lawburrows.

Tables XXI. to XXVII.

(c.) In these Tables the total number of convicted prisoners received during the year is dealt with. The total entry of each of these Tables therefore agrees with the total of columns 2 and 3 of Table XX.

Table XXII.

(d.) In dealing with consecutive and concurrent sentences in this Table, the number of persons entered is determined by the number of separate and distinct warrants received with the prisoner. Two sentences passed at the same time and ordered to run consecutively appearing on the same warrant are treated as one sentence equal in length to the two added together; in the case of concurrent sentences, the longer only is given.

(e.) Cases in which Preventive Detention is imposed in addition to the sentences of penal servitude shown in column 3 are given in column 14.

(f.) Cases of revocation or forfeiture of licence in which a remanet is to be served in addition to new sentences of penal servitude or imprisonment, are shown in column 15 according to length of remanet The penal servitude or imprisonment sentence is shown separately either in column 3 or 5.

Notes to Reformatory and Industrial School Tables (Tables XXX. to XXXVI.).

Tables XXX., XXXII., and XXXIII.

(a.) These tables comprise all admissions into Reformatory Schools during the year on orders of detention. Re-admissions on expiration or revocation of licence or on recapture after escape are not included; nor are admissions on transfer from another school.

Tables XXXI. and XXXV.

(b.) Columns 2 to 10 in Table XXXI., and columns 2 to 10 in Table XXXV., Numbers "discharged," include children discharged, or whose sentence expired, while on licence, but not children who die or who escape during the year and are not recaptured before the 31st December.

(c.) Table XXXI., column 12, and Table XXXV., column 12, "Escaped," include only children who escape during the year, and are not recaptured before the 31st December.

Table XXXIV.

(d.) This table comprises all admissions into Industrial Schools on order of detention and transfers from Reformatory Schools by Secretary for Scotland. In Day Industrial Schools voluntary cases, cases sent under attendance orders, and cases received on licence from Industrial Schools are also included. Re-admissions on revocation of licence or on recapture after escape are not included, nor are admissions on transfer from another school.

(e.) The following are the different classes of committals distinguished in Columns 3 to 18:—

Column [3].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found begging or receiving alms (whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, or offering anything for sale), or being in any street, premises, or place for the purpose of so begging or receiving alms (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [4].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found wandering, and not having any home or settled place of abode, or visible means of subsistence, or proper guardianship (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [5].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, found destitute, not being orphans, and having both parents, or the surviving parent, undergoing penal servitude or imprisonment (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [6].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, under the care of a parent or guardian unfit by reason of criminal or drunken habits (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [7].—Girls, apparently under the age of 14 years, whose father has been convicted of an offence under sec. 4 or 5 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1885, against a daughter (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [8].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, that frequent the company of reputed thieves or of common or reputed prostitutes (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [9].—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, lodging or residing in a house used by any prostitute for the purposes of prostitution, or who have been living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage, or favour the seduction or prostitution of the child (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [10].—Children, apparently under the age of 12 years, who are charged with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [11].—Children, apparently aged above 12 years and under the age of 14 years, who are charged with an offence punishable in the case of an adult by penal servitude or a less punishment (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [12].—Children whose parents or guardians satisfy a Court of Summary Jurisdiction that they are unable to control the child and that they desire the child to be sent to an industrial school (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [13].—Children, inmates of a poorhouse, in respect of whom the Parish Council of any Parish or Combination, or board of management, satisfy a Court of Summary Jurisdiction that they are refractory, or that they are the children of parents either of whom has been convicted of an offence punishable with penal servitude or imprisonment, and that it is desirable that the child should be sent to an industrial school (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 58).

Column [14].—Children sent to an industrial school for non-compliance with an attendance order, made on the ground that their parents habitually and without reasonable excuse neglected to provide efficient elementary education for them (first offence) (56 Vict. cap. 12, sec. 4 (1)).

Column [15].—Children committed to an industrial school for non-compliance with an attendance order, made on the ground that their parents habitually and without reasonable excuse neglected to provide efficient elementary education for them (second or subsequent offence) (56 Vict. cap. 12, sec. 4 (2)).

Column [16].—Children ordered to be sent to a day industrial school, who are guilty of a serious and wilful breach of the rules of the school, or who wilfully neglect to attend thereat (Order in Council, 2nd April 1909, Arts. 8 and 9).

Column [17].—Children sent to industrial schools for contravention of bye-laws for the regulation of street trading made under the Employment of Children Act 1903 or under local Acts.

Column [18].—Youthful offenders under the age of 14 transferred from a Reformatory School to an Industrial School by order of the Secretary for Scotland (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 69 (2)(b)).

In Day Industrial Schools there are also the following classes:—

Column [19].—Admissions under Attendance Orders (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 79).

Column [20].—Admissions without Order of Court (voluntary cases) (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, sec. 79).

Column [21].—Children admitted on licence from Industrial Schools (8 Edw. VII. cap. 67, secs. 67 and 77).

NOTES TO TABLE.

Col. 1.—Remission of Detention in a Reformatory applies only to cases where the whole sentence to a Reformatory has been remitted. Ordinary discharge from Reformatory Schools are given in Table XXXI.

"Remanet."—When a convict is released on licence he is liable, if again convicted, or if his licence is revoked, to undergo a term of penal servitude equal to the portion of his original sentence unexpired at the time of his release. This is known as a "Remanet."

Col. 3.—Includes pardons or remissions on account of fresh evidence establishing prisoner's innocence, or showing reasonable doubt as to guilt, or altering the view taken as to the nature or gravity of the offence.

Col. 5.—In addition to the above cases discharged on "medical grounds," e.g., persons whose lives were endangered by imprisonment, women near their confinement who, if longer detained, would not have been fit for discharge at the expiration of their sentence, persons discharged for removal to hospitals for infectious diseases, &c., 20 males and 15 females were similarly removed from prisons under Sheriff's Warrant granted in terms of sec. 72 of the Prisons (Scotland) Act, 1860, on the ground that they were afflicted with a contagious or infectious disease which rendered their removal necessary for the health of the other inmates of the prison, or that they were afflicted with a disease which threatened immediate danger to life and could not be treated in prison, or that from their condition continued confinement would cause death. Where the medical condition of the prisoner formed only a part of the ground for the exercise of the prerogative, the cases are tabulated under other heads.

Col. 7.—Comprises all cases where the mitigation granted does not imply any alteration of the view taken by the Court as to the prisoner's guilt or the nature and gravity of his offence; but where weight is given, with or without a recommendation from the judge or magistrate, to such extenuating circumstances as youth, provocation, mental disturbance, &c.; also cases where remission is granted for reasons not before the Court, or where a short remission enables a prisoner to avail himself of some special opportunity of making a new start in life.

INTRODUCTION

TO THE

CIVIL COURT STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR 1911.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CIVIL COURT STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR 1911.

The increase in the volume of business in the Sheriff Courts, more particularly in the Miscellaneous and Administrative business, is the outstanding feature in the statistics of the Civil Portion of this Report.

Business disposed of by the Extra Division appointed by the Lords of Council and Session by Acts of Sederunt is included in the Tables relating to the Inner House of the Court of Session.

A Table giving a comparative view of business in the Civil Courts for the last 20 years is given on page 111 following this Introduction.

The House of Lords.

TABLE I.

The House of Lords is the ultimate Court of Appeal in all civil causes. Appeals are competent from decisions of the Inner House of the Court of Session and from the Court of Teinds, but they are not competent from interlocutory judgments except with the leave of the Court pronouncing the judgment, or if there has been a difference of opinion among the Judges.

The appeals from decisions of the Court of Session before the House of Lords in the year 1911 were 37, of which 14 were pending at the commencement of the year and 23 were presented during the year. The number disposed of was 29, viz. 23 by Judgment—in which the Judgment of the Inner House was affirmed in 9 cases and reversed in 13, one case being dismissed by the House of Lords as incompetent—and 6 withdrawn, etc. The remaining 8 appeals were left pending at the end of the year.

The Court of Session.

TABLES II. to XV.

The Court of Session is the Supreme Civil Court of Scotland. It consists of thirteen Judges, viz., the Lord President, who is also Lord Justice-General of Scotland, the Lord Justice-Clerk, and eleven other Judges. It is divided into an Outer and an Inner House.

The Outer House consists of five Judges of first instance, called Lords Ordinary, who sit separately, and whose decisions may in such cases be brought under the review of the Inner House by a Reclaiming Note. The Lords Ordinary try matters of fact either by proof, i.e. evidence taken before themselves without a jury, or by presiding over a trial by jury. To the Junior Lord Ordinary many special matters of an administrative character (detailed in Table IV.) are assigned.

The Inner House sits in two Divisions, the first consisting of the Lord President and three other Judges, the second of the Lord Justice-Clerk and three other Judges. These Divisions have equal powers. They sit as Courts of Appeal from the decisions of the Judges of the Outer House. They also review the decisions of all Inferior Civil Courts, unless where such review is expressly excluded by statute. They exercise original jurisdiction in certain cases. There are sittings for trial by jury in the Inner House, when the presiding Judge is either the Lord President, Lord Justice-Clerk, or one of the Judges of either Division. An Appeal lies to the House of Lords from the final judgment of either Division. No Appeal lies from interlocutory judgments, unless leave is given, or unless there has been a division of opinion at pronouncing the judgment.

By the Criminal Procedure Act of 1887, sect. 44, all the Judges of the Court of Session are Lords Commissioners of Justiciary.

Outer House.

TABLES II. to VII.

The total number of Actions before the Court was 2352, the average number for the three years ending 1910 being 2394, thus shewing very little variation. Of these, 1471 were disposed of by Final Judgment, 233 were otherwise taken out of Court, and 648 were left pending at the end of the year.

Table III. gives details of the Actions disposed of by Final Judgment according to subject-matter. The following are the most prominent, and the average for the preceding three years is given for comparison.

	Year 1911.	Average 3 years ended 1910.
Actions relating to Personal Debt	225	255
Marriage, Divorce, and Separation	273	233
Damages	210	211
Heritable Estate	65	77

Table IV. is an analysis of the Miscellaneous and Administrative Business dealt with by the Judges of the Outer House, viz. 540 Petitions. It is largely composed of Petitions in regard to Factors, Curators, etc., disposed of by the Junior Lord Ordinary on Bills.

Table V. shews that of the 1471 Actions disposed of by Final Judgment there were 1121 in which no evidence was led in Court, 327 in which proof was taken, and 23 in which there was trial by Jury.

Table VI. deals with Actions for Divorce, Separation and Aliment. The total number of Judgments given was 246. Of these 109 were at the instance of the husband and 137 at the instance of the wife. Applications were refused in 7 cases. In more than 34 per cent. of the Actions the parties had been married from 5 to 10 years, and in over 57 per cent. for upwards of 10 years. Of the 246 Actions there were children of the marriage in 167 cases and no children in 79.

Table VII. gives the occupation of the pursuer in these Actions.

Inner House.

TABLES VIII. to XV.

First and Second Divisions.

The total number of Actions before the Inner House was 929, viz. before the First Division 491, including the Extra Division cases referred to below, and before the Second Division 438. There was an increase of 30 as compared with the total number for the previous year. Of these, 501 were disposed of by Final Judgment, 245 were otherwise taken out of Court, leaving 183 cases pending at the end of the year. Of the Actions disposed of by Final Judgment 92 were brought from the Outer House, viz. 10 by notice for trial by Jury and 82 by Reclaiming Note, 103 from Sheriff Courts, 7 from the Bill Chamber, etc., whilst 299 were initiated in the Inner House. These Actions are analysed in Tables IX and XI.

In Table X. will be found a detailed account of the Miscellaneous and Administrative Business disposed of by the Inner House. There were 266 Petitions, 120 of which were for benefit of admission to the Poor's Roll.

Table XII. deals with the 82 Appeals brought into the Inner House by Reclaiming Note from the Outer House, and shews the effect of the Inner House Judgment upon that of the Lord Ordinary appealed from, and Table XIII. shews the subject matter of the Appeals. The Judgment of the Lord Ordinary was adhered to in 56 cases and reversed or altered in 26.

Tables XIV. and XV. deal in a similar manner with cases appealed from the Sheriff Court. The total number of Appeals was 103. In 56 cases the decision of the Sheriff was adhered to, and in 47 it was reversed or altered.

Extra Division.

Under the Powers conferred by 31 and 32 Vict. Cap. 100, sec. 106, the Court of Session by Acts of Sederunt during the year appointed three Judges, viz., Lord Kinnear, Lord Dundas, and Lord Mackenzie to sit as a Court for the hearing and disposal of causes standing on the rolls of the First Division. The additional Division of the Inner House so appointed is known as the "Extra Division."

The Court disposed of 29 Actions. 19 were disposed of by Final Judgment, 9 being Reclaiming Notes from the Outer House, in 7 of which the decision of the Lord Ordinary was adhered to, and in 2 reversed. There were also 5 appeals from Sheriff Courts, in all of which the decision of the Court below was adhered to. 5 Cases were initiated in the Inner House. The remaining 10 Actions were taken out of Court otherwise than by Final Judgment. The figures for the Extra Division are included in those of the First Division throughout the Tables, but in Table VIII. supplementary figures are given in italics to indicate the business disposed of by this Court.

Court for the Trial of Election Petitions.

TABLE XVI.

Petitions complaining of undue return or undue election of a Member of Parliament are presented to either Division of the Court of Session, and the trial takes place before two Judges, called Election Judges, placed annually on the rota for that purpose. These Judges report their finding to the Speaker of the House of Commons.

There were no Petitions in the year 1911.

Registration Appeal Court.

TABLE XVII.

By the Representation of the People Act 1868, a Court was constituted for hearing Appeals from the judgments of the Sheriffs in the Registration Courts for Counties and Burghs in regard to the making up of the list of persons qualified to vote for Members of Parliament. The Court consists of three Judges of the Court of Session—one from each Division of the Court, and one of the Lords Ordinary. The decision of this Court is declared final and not subject to review.

During the year 2 Appeals were disposed of, in both of which the judgment of the Sheriff was affirmed.

Valuation Appeal Court.

TABLE XVIII.

A separate Court, consisting of two Judges of the Court of Session, named from time to time by Act of Sederunt, sits for the purpose of hearing Appeals in regard to the valuation of lands and heritages. Valuation Rolls for the lands and heritages of the whole of Scotland (except railways and canals) are made up by Assessors of Counties and Burghs respectively, and from the Assessor an Appeal lies, in the first instance, in Burghs to the Magistrates, and in Counties to a Statutory Valuation Committee appointed by the County Council. From the decision of either of these bodies an Appeal, in the form of a Stated Case, lies to the Valuation Appeal Court, whose judgment is final, there being no Appeal either to the Court of Session or House of Lords.

The valuation of railways, canals, and certain other public undertakings, is conducted by a special Assessor, and an Appeal from him lies to the Sheriff of the County where the subjects lie in one County, and to the Bill Chamber of the Court of Session where they lie in more than one.

There were 61 Appeals, 48 of which were from the City of Edinburgh, arising chiefly from increased Licence Duties imposed under the Finance (1909-10) Act 1910. In 4 the cases were taken by the Assessor, 2 of which were sustained and 2 varied. Of the 57 by other parties, 6 were sustained, 49 varied, and 2 withdrawn.

Bill Chamber of the Court of Session.

TABLE XIX.

The Bill Chamber is a branch of the Court of Session which deals specially with matters requiring great dispatch, and sits without vacation during the whole year. In time of session the Junior Lord Ordinary officiates as Lord Ordinary on the Bills, i.e. summary applications; and during vacation he and other Judges officiate in turn, so that there is always a Judge available to dispose of such matters. An Appeal lies to either Division of the Inner House by Reclaiming Note from the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, whether in vacation or session, but such Appeals are heard only in session.

The number of applications before the Court during the year was 200, the lowest number yet recorded. The average over the last 30 years is 312. Of the total applications 174 were disposed of by the Lord Ordinary, 137 being granted and 37 refused. No further action is anticipated in 14 cases, leaving 12 pending at the end of the year. Proceedings transmitted to the Outer House numbered 22 and 7 were disposed of in absence. The number of Notices of Appeal and Reclaiming Notes of all kinds to the Inner House was 10. The Clerk of the Bills disposed of 380 writs presented to him during the year.

Court of Teinds.

TABLES XX. and XXI.

The Teind (or Tithe) Court consists of Judges of the Inner House of the Court of Session, together with the Lord Ordinary on Teinds, who is the second Junior Lord Ordinary, any five (including the Lord Ordinary) being a quorum. The Court deals with augmentations of stipend where there are free teinds in a parish. It also deals with the feuing of glebes, the erection of new parishes, and various other kindred matters. An Appeal lies from the Court of Teinds to the House of Lords.

The number of Actions before the Court during the year was 64, of which 16 were disposed of by the Court of Teinds and 18 by the Lord Ordinary on Teinds. Every application disposed of was granted. The remits from the Teind Court to the Lord Ordinary on Teinds numbered 11. Of the total cases before the Court, 47 related to Stipends.

Sheriffs' Ordinary Courts.

TABLES XXII. to XXVIII.

The Sheriffs' Ordinary Court is the chief local Civil Court of each County. The presiding Judge is either the Sheriff or Sheriff-Substitute. There are fifteen Sheriffs, one Sheriff having frequently jurisdiction over two or more Counties, which then constitute a single Sheriffdom. There are fifty Sheriffs-Substitute, and Courts are held in 57 towns, each with a rural district attached. In the Sheriffs' Ordinary Court there is an Appeal from the Sheriff-Substitute to the Sheriff; an Appeal also lies (in cases of higher value than £50) from the Sheriff-Substitute or from the Sheriff to the Court of Session.

The Sheriffs' Ordinary Court is competent to the trial of all Actions regarding money, moveables, or heritage to any amount, and of Suspension of Charges for debt not exceeding £50. The Sheriff has no jurisdiction in Actions relating to Divorce, but he can entertain Actions of Aliment, Separation and Aliment, and for the Custody of Children. Jury Trials for claims under the Employers' Liability Act 1880 are competent only in the Sheriff Court.

The Sheriff is Statutory Arbitrator under the Workmen's Compensation Acts. He also transacts a large amount of Miscellaneous and Administrative business.

A decrease is shewn in the business brought before this Court as compared with the average for the three years ended 1910. The total actions before the Court in 1911 was 9905, whilst the average for the three years amounted to 10,927. Of these 6674 were concluded by Final Judgment, 45 by Remit to the Court of Session, 9 by transfer to other Sheriffdoms, 1693 were otherwise taken out of Court, leaving 1484 undisposed of at the end of the year. Of the actions ended by Final Judgment, 20 were decided by the Sheriff alone and 6654 by Sheriff Substitutes. 2966 of the actions disposed of by Final Judgment related to Personal Debt, 1009 to Affiliation and Aliment, and 775 to Damages.

Table XXIII. shews the nature of the various actions and allocates them to their respective districts in Scotland.

Expenses were awarded in 4070 cases. The total sum awarded and decerned for was £36,616, 5s. 5d., yielding an average for each case of £8, 19s. 11d., against an average of £8, 12s. 4d. in 1910.

In Table XXIV. are given the periods elapsing in cases decided in foro between possession of the completed process by the Sheriffs and Sheriff-Substitutes and the date of Judgment. Of the 3400 Judgments in foro, 3348 were delivered within four weeks of the possession of completed process.

Appeals from Sheriff-Substitute to Sheriff.

TABLES XXV. and XXVI.

The total Appeals to the Sheriff numbered 711 in 651 Actions. Judgment of the Sheriff-Substitute was affirmed in 527 appeals, reversed in 119, and altered in 65. The time taken by the Sheriff in giving Judgment on these Appeals is shewn in Table XXV. The nature of these Actions is given in Table XXVI. They relate largely to Personal Debt and Damages.

Clubs Registered under the Licensing (Scotland) Act, 1903.

TABLE XXVII.

Table XXVII. gives the number of Clubs Licensed during 1911—amounting in the Counties to 163 and in the Burghs to 461.

Miscellaneous and Administrative Business.

TABLE XXVIII.

The business classified under this head still continues to increase till it has amounted to more than three times the number of applications returned twenty years ago. The following comparison is instructive :—

Average for the 5 years ending 1895.	Average for the 5 years ending 1900.	Average for the 5 years ending 1905.	Average for the 5 years ending 1910.	Year 1911.
14,474	15,548	18,719	30,533	48,513

The enormous increase is due largely to cases under the Workmen's Compensation Act 1906 and Dogs Act 1906, the two together amounting to 27,493 during the year.

Sheriff's County and Burgh Registration Courts.

TABLE XXIX.

It is a duty of the Sheriff to hold annually a Registration Court. Thereat he hears and disposes of all claims and objections relating to the Lists of Voters prepared by local Assessors.

There is little to remark under this head. A comparison is made with the figures for the previous year of the Ordinary and Lodger Claims sustained.

	County Roll.		Burgh Roll.
Year.	Ordinary Claims.	Lodger Claims.	Ordinary Claims.	Lodger Claims.
1911	4,316	32,722	1,212	39,342
1910	5,296	28,447	1,252	35,404

Sheriff Court of Chancery.

TABLE XXX.

The Sheriff of Chancery has jurisdiction to serve heirs co-ordinate with that of the Sheriffs of Counties, except where the deceased died furth of Scotland, or where the lands are situated in more Counties than one, in which cases the jurisdiction of the Sheriff of Chancery is exclusive.

The number of petitions before this Court varies very little from year to year. The total Petitions before the Court numbered 317, of which 113 were for General Service of Heirs and 202 for Special Service. 240 were disposed of by Final Judgment, all of which were granted.

Crofters Commission.

TABLE XXXI.

The Crofters Commission was appointed by Act of Parliament in 1886, and subsequent statutes have extended its powers. These relate chiefly to the occupation of crofter and cottar holdings in the Highlands of Scotland, and include the fixing of a fair rent, the enlargement of holdings, the settlement of boundaries, etc. The decision of the Commission upon all matters committed to their determination by the Act is final.

The figures given in Table XXXI. are for the period from 1st January 1911 to 31st March 1912, at which latter date the Crofters Commission as such ceased to exist. The functions of the Commission are now transferred to the Scottish Land Court in terms of the Small Landholders, (Scotland) Act, 1911.

Sheriff's Small Debt Courts.

TABLES XXXII. and XXXIII.

The Sheriff's Small Debt Court was established by 7 Wm. IV. and 1 Vict. cap. 41, an Act subsequently amended by 16 & 17 Vict. cap. 80, 52 & 53 Vict. cap. 26, and 7 Edw. VII. cap. 51, for the determination, in a summary form, of civil causes, including prosecution for statutory penalties and maritime civil causes, when the debt, demand, or penalty does not exceed £20. The Court is also competent to order delivery of corporeal moveables not exceeding £20 in value. The presiding Judge is either the Sheriff or Sheriff-Substitute, and no Appeal lies from the Sheriff-Substitute to the Sheriff, but an Appeal lies to the High Court of Justiciary on certain limited grounds. Any party may appear by or with a Law Agent, whose fees are allowed only if the Sheriff thinks such appearance was necessary, and the expenses are restricted to a small amount. The sittings of the Court are held at the seats of the Sheriff Court, and also on Circuit at over fifty other towns throughout the country.

The total cases before this Court is the lowest since the year 1906. Compared with the average number of the preceding five years the figures stand—year 1911, 76,682; average of years 1906–10, 82,527.

The cases were disposed of as follows: By Decree, 57,507; Otherwise than by Decree, 15,339; Removed from the Roll, 1972, leaving pending at the end of the year 1864. There were 373 Reponings on Decrees in Absence, against 486 in the previous year. In 229 cases Judgment was repeated, and in 144 cases altered.

The number of remits from the Small Debt Court to the Sheriff's Ordinary Court was 15, an increase of 3 on the number for 1910.

Ejections following on Small Debt Court Decrees under 52 and 53 Vict. Cap. 26, sec. 6, numbered 546, and Summary Ejections 7683, as against 645 and 7444 respectively in the previous year.

The total sums claimed in Actions disposed of by Decree amounted to £242,260, 10s. 11d., as compared with £264,001, 14s. 2d. in 1910. This sum is made up of sums decerned for, £207,486, 17s. 0d., and sums disallowed, £34,773, 13s. 11d. The average sum decerned for in each case was £3, 15s. 3d., as compared with £3, 17s. 0d. in 1910. The total expenses awarded during the year amounted to £25,998, 18s. 9d.

Justice of Peace Small Debt Courts.

TABLES XXXIV. and XXXV.

By 39 & 40 Geo. III. cap. 46, a summary civil jurisdiction in small debt causes was conferred on Justices of the Peace. This statute was superseded by 6 Geo. IV. cap. 48, which has been amended by 12 & 13 Vict. cap. 34. Any two or more Justices are authorised to hear and determine all causes and complaints brought before them concerning the recovery of debts or the making any demand effectual, provided the debt or demand does not exceed £5. The jurisdiction does not extend to any debt where the title to heritage is in question, nor to any debt or matter arising upon or concerning the validity of wills and contracts of marriage, though the amount at issue is less than £5, nor to gaming debts, nor debts for spirituous liquors. There is no appeal, but "Reduction" (i.e. setting aside) of a Decree is competent in the Court of Session within a year on the ground of malice and oppression on the part of the Justices.

The total number of Actions before the Court was 24,944, a slight decrease as compared with the average number for the preceding five years, which was 25,582. Decree was granted in 23,035 cases, 1209 were otherwise disposed of, 590 were removed from the Roll, leaving 110 undisposed of at the end of the year.

The total amount claimed in the Actions disposed of by Decree was £31,719, viz. of Sums decerned for, £30,733, and of Sums disallowed, £986. The average Sum decerned for in each case was £1, 7s. 1d., as compared with £1, 6s. 3d. in 1910. The total Expenses awarded during the year was £3723, and the total fees received, £2304.

High Court of Justiciary: Sheriff's Small Debt Court Appeals.

TABLES XXXVI. and XXXVII.

Appeals were received from the Sheriff Courts at Glasgow, Hamilton, and Stornoway—one from each. Of these, 2 were for Debts and 1 for Damages. The decision of the Sheriff was adhered to in one case, reversed in another, and altered in the third.

Dean of Guild Courts.

TABLE XXXVIII.

These Courts are constituted either by special Act of Parliament, or under the powers conferred by the Burgh Police Act of 1892.

By Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1903, which came into force on 15th May 1904, it was enacted that in any burgh where there is no Dean of Guild Court, the functions of the Dean of Guild Court under the Burgh Police Acts shall be performed by the Town Council, to whom all applications required to be made to the Dean of Guild Court shall be made.

The Court has jurisdiction over questions in regard to the erection, alteration, and demolition of buildings within burghs. No such operations can be legally carried on without warrant of the Court; and in the event of unauthorised operations being carried out, the Procurator-Fiscal of the Dean of Guild Court may interfere and sue for penalties. An Appeal from the Decree of a Dean of Guild Court lies to the Court of Session.

There were 4350 applications before the Court, viz.: for New Buildings, 1707; for Alterations, 2273; and other applications, 370. The average of the total applications for the preceding five years was 4689. The tendency of these applications since the year 1906 has been to decrease in number.

The Court disposed of 4298 applications, viz. by Decree, 4226, withdrawn or not proceeded with, 72.

Notices of appeal to the Court of Session numbered 6.

Licensing Courts.

TABLES XXXIX. to XLI.

The granting and renewing of certificates to enable retailers of excisable liquors to obtain the necessary Excise licences from the Board of Inland Revenue is committed to Courts constituted under the provisions of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1903, which came into force on 1st January 1904. These Courts are constituted as follows:—

(1) For each burgh being a county of a city, and for each Royal, Parliamentary, or Police Burgh containing 7000 inhabitants or upwards, and for each burgh containing 4000 but under 7000 which had power to grant licences under previous Acts, the Licensing Court consists of the Magistrates of the burgh.

(2) Counties, or where these have been divided, county districts, have separate Courts, constituted one half of Justices of the Peace for the county, and one half of County Councillors, each elected from their own number. The numbers constituting such Courts vary according to population from 8 to 18, each burgh under 4000 inhabitants being deemed to form part of the county or district.

(3) A new Appeal Court is constituted, consisting one half of Justices of the Peace, and one half of Burgh Magistrates or County Councillors respectively elected under detailed conditions set forth in the Act.

Half-yearly meetings of the Licensing Courts are held in April and October, the licences granted in April being in force for a year from Whitsunday; those granted in October for six months from Martinmas. The Appeal Court can review the decision of the Licensing Courts on all questions of renewal, but there is no appeal from a decision refusing a new licence. All grants of new licence must, however, be confirmed by the Appeal Court, and are of no force till this is done.

The transfer of certificates to new tenants or occupants may be granted by the Licensing Court held in October, but in the case of death or bankruptcy of the licence-holder, two members of the Licensing Court may grant a transfer to continue till the next general half-yearly Licensing Court.

Excisable liquors include Spirits, Wine, Porter, Ale, Beer, Cider, Perry, Mead, Metheglin, and Sweets. Mead and Metheglin are fermented preparations of honey and water flavoured with hops, and Sweets are fermented preparations of fruit and sugar, either alone or mixed with any other material.

The business despatched by the Licensing Courts in the year 1911 is slightly below an average taken over the preceding five years.

The total Certificates granted, and where necessary confirmed, for the Sale of excisable liquors were as follows: For Inns and Hotels, 1616; for Public-houses, 5241; for Grocers, 3634, whilst 5 Licences were granted for the sale of Table Beer only. The average annual rental of Hotels amounts to £132, of Public-houses to £72, and of Grocers' Premises to £44. These resemble very closely the average rentals of the previous year, which were respectively £135, £71, and £44. The number of Special Permissions granted during the year was 6630, a decrease of 28 on the number for the previous year.

Accountant of Court; Bankruptcy Returns; Sequestrations and Cessios for the Year 1910.

TABLE XLII.

I. Sequestrations.

The number of Sequestrations awarded during the year 1910 was 243, 3 were reopened, which, added to 3983 (the number brought forward from the previous year), make a total of 4229. The average for the previous five years was 4222.

The estimated value of the Gross Estate in the 187 Sequestrations concluded by Final Division and Discharge within the year was £507,888, whilst the sum actually recovered by the Trustees was £348,614, a deficit of £159,274 on the estimated value of Estate. Expenses of all kinds amounted to £79,535, and secured and unsecured dividends paid to Creditors to £264,244, leaving a balance of £4835, being Surpluses paid to Bankrupts or their representatives.

The 243 Sequestrations awarded during the year are shewn according to Counties in Table C.

There were 78 discharges of Bankrupts within the year, 9 with Composition and 69 without.

A summary of Results, comparing the details of the Sequestrations wound up by division of funds during the year ended 31 December 1910, with the details of those wound up by division of funds during the six previous years, will be found in Table H.

II. Cessios.

Of the 122 Cessios reported to the Accountant of Court, 82 were wound up during the year as follows:—by Trustee's discharge after dividend, 43; by Trustee's discharge without dividend, 38; otherwise closed, 1. In table B. the Cessios concluded by division are classified according to the rate of dividend per £ upon the unsecured debts, and in Table C. the results of those wound up by division of funds are shewn, compared with the corresponding figures for the previous year.

Judicial Factories for the Year 1910.

TABLE XLIII.

The number of bonds lodged with the Accountant of Court during the year 1910 was 318, which, with the 1903 brought from the previous year, made the total number 2221. Of these 277 were wound up or recalled within the year, leaving 1944 in force at the end. The nature of the appointments is given. The number of Accounts rendered within the year was 1922. The Capital Funds and Effects were estimated at £11,197,151—made up of Personal Estates, £6,530,359, and Lands and Heritages, £4,666,792. The total Revenue dealt with amounted to £536,496, and the total Expenditure to £540,913.

Commissary Offices.

TABLE XLIV.

The Sheriff and Sheriffs-Substitute in each County are now the judges whose province it is to deal with the transfer of moveable property from the dead to the executors. These executors are either nominate (when named by the deceased in his will) or dative (when appointed by the Commissary). The Commissary Court is now absorbed in the Sheriff Court, and the Sheriff-Clerk performs the duties of the former Commissary Clerks, except in the case of Edinburgh, where a separate Commissary Clerk still exists. The records of Commissary proceedings in the Sheriff Court are still kept distinct from those of the Ordinary Sheriff Court, and consist of the appointment of Executors-dative, recording Inventories of Personal Estate, with relative testamentary writings, and granting Confirmations (corresponding generally to Probate and Letters of Administration in England). The Commissariot of Edinburgh deals with a greater amount of Estate than the others, as Confirmation of the Personal Estates of all persons dying domiciled out of Scotland can only be obtained there; and it is only there that Probates and Letters of Administration granted in England or Ireland or the Colonies can be sealed.

The number of Inventories recorded during the year 1911, and the amount of Estate therein, were :—

Recorded in Edinburgh	1592	£5,590,838
Recorded elsewhere in Scotland	7916	17,287,624

The number of Confirmations and the Amounts confirmed stood thus :—

	No.	Ordinary Estates.	No.	Under Small Estates Acts.
Commissariot of Edinburgh	1194	£5,469,441	334	£56,299
Other Commissary Offices	3764	16,205,693	3822	705,353

Petitions for Decrees-dative numbered 1169, and other Petitions 222.

English, Irish, and Colonial Probates, etc., certified and resealed in the Commissariot of Edinburgh numbered 755.

Register of Sasines.

TABLE XLV.

The General Register of Sasines contains entries of all conveyances of, securities over, and other writs affecting lands and houses and heritable property generally throughout Scotland, except within most of the Royal Burghs. In most of these there is a separate Register containing entries as to heritable property within the burgh. The purpose of registration is to make public the writ recorded; and, generally speaking, registration is necessary to give a writ affecting lands or houses full effect.

Although the total entries in the Presentment Books are comparatively low in 1911, they are higher than those of the preceding year, thus :—

	1910.	1911.
General Register of Sasines	35,353	36,035
Burgh Registers of Sasines	4,146	4,526

Registers of English and Irish Judgments.

TABLES XLVI. and XLVII.

This record was established by 31 & 32 Vict. cap. 54, and furnishes an expeditious mode of making judgments of the Supreme Courts of England and Ireland effectual in Scotland. By the Inferior Courts Judgments Extension Act 1882, judgments of Inferior Courts in England and Ireland may similarly be made effectual in Scotland.

There were 28 Certificates entered in the Register of English and Irish Judgments during the year, viz. 26 from England and 2 from Ireland.

Under the Inferior Courts Judgments Extension Act 1882, 18 Certificates were entered, viz. 16 from England and 2 from Ireland.

General and County Registers of Deeds.

TABLES XLVIII. and XLIX.

In these records Deeds may be recorded either for preservation or for execution. In both cases the Deeds remain in the record, and "extracts" (certified office copies) are returned to the parties, which have the same effect as the originals, unless forgery be alleged. Registration for preservation merely secures the safe custody of the Deed. On the other hand, an Extract of a Deed registered for execution is equivalent to a Decree of Court, and contains warrant of execution, in the same way as if a Decree of Court had been pronounced enforcing the Deed.

In the General Register of Deeds kept at Edinburgh 7391 Deeds were extracted, viz. 7009 Original Writs, and 382 Extracts of Writs previously recorded. The County Registers shew a total of 1047 entries in the Presentment Books.

Registers of Protests on Bills and Promissory Notes.

TABLES L. and LI.

In Scotland summary diligence may follow on a Bill or Promissory Note being protested before a Notary Public, and the protest registered in the Books of Council and Session or in the books of a Sheriff Court. An extract from these Registers is equivalent to a Decree of Court, and execution may pass without any further judicial proceedings.

In the General Register kept at Edinburgh 58 protests for non-payment of Bills and Promissory Notes were recorded, and the total sums protested for amounted to £7937, 7s. 6d., the figures for the previous year were respectively 119 and £12,875, 4s. 6d.; the total number of persons protested against was 76. The entries in the County Registers were:—Total number of Protests, 572; total sums protested for, £28,643, 4s. 4d. The figures for the previous year were respectively 557 and £28,502, 0s. 2d.; the total number of persons protested against was 668.

Office of Auditor of the Court of Session.

TABLE LII.

The Auditor of the Court of Session is an officer appointed under I. & II. George IV. cap. 38, to whom either of the Divisions or any Lord Ordinary may remit for taxation the costs of a suit in which expenses are found due. His office corresponds generally, it is understood, with that of a Taxing Master of the High Court of Justice in England.

The number of Judicial Accounts lodged during the year was 1096. The Accounts as lodged amounted to £120,076, 17s. 4d., which sum was reduced in Taxation to £104,483, 10s. 11d.

Office of the Principal Extractor of the Court of Session.

TABLE LIII.

The principal Extractor of the Court of Session is the officer by whom the Extracts of Decrees and Acts of the Court are prepared and authenticated, except in regard to Decrees and Acts of the Bill Chamber and Teind Court, which are extracted by the clerks of these Courts. By the Extract is meant the warrant granted to the successful party, on which execution of the Decree of the Court may pass.

The Extracts made were of Decrees in Absence 949, and of Decrees in foro 246, making a total of 1195.

Office of the Director of Chancery.

TABLE LIV.

In this office are recorded all Decrees of service completing titles, Writs passing the Great and Quarter Seals of Scotland, and various other Writs chiefly of a public nature.

The number of Writs passing through or issuing from this Office during the year was 1000, of which 849 were for Decrees of Service and for completing Title.

Register of Hornings.

TABLE LV.

In this registry are recorded "letters of horning," by which debtors were ordained to pay their debts under the penalty of being held as rebels and "put to the horn." The old forms have practically been superseded by simpler modes of execution introduced by statute, but as the old forms are still competent, the registry is still in legal existence, and is indeed occasionally used.

There were 3 entries in the Presentment Book during the year.

Register of Inhibitions.

TABLE LVI.

An Inhibition is a Writ passing the Signet, whereby the debtor is prevented from alienating or charging with debt his lands or other heritable property to the prejudice of the person using the Inhibition. To be effectual, it must be recorded in this Register. A Sequestration in Bankruptcy having this effect, an entry of such is made in the Register of Inhibitions.

The Entries in the Presentment Book numbered 634, whereof 369 were in Mercantile Sequestrations, 193 for Recovery of Specified Debts, and 72 for other purposes.

Register of Adjudications.

TABLE LVII.

In this record are recorded all Decrees attaching heritage in satisfaction of debt. Sequestrations in Bankruptcy have the effect of adjudication, and are also consequently recorded in this Register. .

There were 321 entries in the Presentment Book during the year, of which 312 related to Mercantile Sequestrations.

Fees, etc., Collected in the Exchequer Office.

TABLES LVIII. and LIX.

A summary of the Fees, etc. collected by the King's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer in Exchequer through Offices of Court and Departments of the General Register House is given in Table LVIII., and a return of Fees received from the various Sheriff Court Districts and Commissary Offices detailed under each Court is given in Table LIX.

* The Barony and Regality of Glasgow is, for the purposes of this Register, treated as a County. It consists of a part of Lanarkshire and a part of Renfrewshire, and there are no means of distinguishing the Writs applicable to the portions separately.

† Orkney and Shetland are, for the purposes of this Register, treated as one County; also Ross and Cromarty form one County in terms of Section 39 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889.
